

THE NEWS-BULLETIN

VOL. 1 NO. 50

MOKENA, WILL COUNTY, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1920

$2.00 Per Year

PAY HONOR TO MEMORY OF JOHN A. HATCH

John A. Hatch, Civil war veteran and veteran merchant of Mokena, answered the final summons to join the great silent army in the early hours of Saturday morning following an illness of six weeks. For years Mr. Hatch had not been in good health, but he still remained active in his store up to within the last six weeks. Toward the closing days of his long life paralysis set in.

Mr. Hatch will long be remembered for the influence for good that he was in the community. He was a kind-hearted man who always went out of his way to do a favor to anybody. He was beloved by all who knew him. He always was of a cheerful disposition and made and retained friends readily.

Mr. Hatch was born in Frankfort township February 27, 1842. On May 16, 1866, he was united in marriage with Miss Nancy McGowney of Mokena. They lived on a farm near Tinley Park for three years following which they moved to Chicago, where they remained for six months following which they returned to Tinley Park. From there they moved to Browning, Mo., where they lived five and a half years. From the latter place they came to Mokena. Mr. Hatch entered the grain business and the general merchandise line. He served as postmaster and also held various other offices, such as justice of the peace, school director, school trustee. He also served as the first village clerk when the village was incorporated in 1880. He was instrumental in drafting the first village ordinances which are now a part of the village records. He was actively engaged in business in Mokena for 45 years.

When the Civil war broke out he was one of the first to answer his country's call. He enlisted in the Seventy-second Board of Trade Regiment of Chicago. Later he was promoted from the rank of private to lieutenant of the Forty-second infantry and served throughout the war. He was a member of the U. S. Grant post of Chicago G. A. R.

Mr. Hatch was always closely associated with the affairs of the community. With strength to conquer and a will to command in Mr. Hatch's character there seemed no place for self. No motive actuated him which did not render wide allowance for gentleness and charity toward human kind. He was ever ready to help wherever his help was needed.

In the affairs of men the termination of a life is of temporary consequence, but in the mightier works of nature the making of a living is insignificant as compared to the making of a life that is complete.

Mr. Hatch had the rare privilege of living beyond the allotted span of three score years and ten and had the opportunity of reaching a ripe old age.

Funeral services were held from the late home Monday afternoon. Rev. Henry Rust of the Marley Baptist church officiated. Hundreds of friends gathered to pay their tributes of last respect to the memory of him whom they held in such high esteem in life. There were many beautiful floral offerings. Burial was in the Marshall cemetery.

Mr. Hatch is survived by his widow, five daughters—Mrs. Jennie Stellwagen of Mokena, Mrs. Nannie Fulton, Mrs. Grace E. Pittaway, Mrs. Etta Grassie and Mrs. Lois Harvey—all of Joliet; three sons—John O. Elbert R. of Chicago and Alfred C. of Mokena, thirteen grand children and one great-grandchild. One daughter, Emily, died many years ago. One brother, Edwin R. Hatch of Browning, Mo., also survives.

BACK FROM MANITOBA.

Ona E. McGowney has just returned from an intensive study of farming conditions in the best wheat section of Manitoba, points within 150 miles of Winnipeg. Though he is very conservative, he was amazed at the growth and improvements in the country. He was so impressed with the country that in connection with a few other associates from other parts of the state they bought outright some valuable improved parcels of the best wheat land. The same organization has bought control of a number of what they deemed the best properties. By auto they toured that wheat center in a radius of 150 miles, riding day and night, and making a careful inspection of soil, water and crop conditions. Mr. McGowney's friends everywhere are seeking him for information, and he gives intelligent response to inquiries.

M. S. Brinckerhoff sold his lot and dwelling occupied by the Clark family to Charles Smith of Washington Heights for $2,400.

IMPROVE STREETS.

Through the instrumentality of Charles Knapp the residents of Front street have been interested to take the large, coarse stones off the street. The residents in the east end of the village have made the street look well by raking the big stones away, but the residents in the west end of the village have neglected doing so and the street is very rough as a result. It is hoped that the west end residents will manifest as much interest in improving the street as was manifested by the east end citizens.

CHOIR TO SING.

Rev. Mr. Herrick, pastor of the local Methodist church, expects to bring the choir of the Trinity church, Joliet, here next Sunday afternoon to sing at the afternoon services. At the close of the services a meeting of the church members will be held at which plans for the future of the church will be discussed.

English services will be held at the Immanuel Lutheran church next Sunday morning by Rev. W. J. Kemnitz.

PICNIC WELL ATTENDED.

The Sunday school picnic held by the Immanuel Lutheran church in the Cappel Grove last Sunday was a very successful affair. A large crowd attended afternoon and evening. Many prizes were awarded. Bowling was one of the big features on the program. A large number of out-of-town people attended this picnic.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us at the time of the death and burial of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. John A. Hatch and Family.

PASTOR RETURNS FROM VACATION.

Rev. William Kreis, pastor of St. John's Evangelical church, returned Tuesday evening from a vacation spent in Iowa where he visited with kindred and friends residing in Donaldson, Waverly and Waterloo.

Church services and Sunday school will be held at the usual time at the St. John's Evangelical church next Sunday. English services will be held in the evening.

MOONLIGHT PICNIC NEXT.

The Mokena Men's club will direct a moonlight picnic at their pavilion in the Cappel Grove on Saturday night, July 24.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hacker have motored to Mississippi on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty, who have been visiting with relatives and friends in Paris, Mattoon and Waco, Ill., returned Wednesday and have left again for Crookston, Minn., where they will spend four weeks visiting with Mrs. Flaherty's sister.

August Hentsch lays claim to being an expert gardener. He has a wonderful lot of tomato plants and had ripe tomatoes last month. He planted the tomato plants early in the spring after he had raised them in a box indoors during the winter.

Alfred Lind, who was operated on sometime ago, has been brought to the John Erickson home from the Silver Cross hospital. He is not improving as well as his many friends had hoped for.

IOWA COUPLE MARRIED HERE.

Mr. Louis Hue and Mrs. Anna Belmann, the latter a sister of Rev. William Kreis, accompanied the latter on his return trip from Waverly, Ia., and were quietly married by Rev. Mr. Kreis at St. John's parsonage Thursday evening. Their future home will be at Waverly.

Rev. W. J. Kemnitz expects to leave on a vacation trip during August. A student will occupy his pulpit at the Immanuel Lutheran church during his absence.

CHAMPION CROQUET PLAYERS.

Tinley Park has some champion croquet players as was discovered by the editor Tuesday when he played a few games at Rev. A. Budden's home. Rev. E. Barkow of Swanville, Minn., and John Barkow of Milwaukee and Rev. A. Budden played. Both the reverends proved to be the champion players, all right.

The New Lenox camps of the R. N. A. and the M. W. A. met in monthly session at the Grange hall on last Monday and Tuesday.

MRS. J. HANSON OF FRANKFORT PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Bertha Hanson, nee Godknecht, died Friday morning at eleven o'clock following a lingering illness. She suffered with a paralytic stroke last February and on July 13 she was stricken with another stroke which caused death. Mrs. Hanson was a resident of this section for many years and had a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Hanson was born February 14, 1856. On September 25, 1879, she was united in marriage with John Hanson. To this union five children were born, two of whom have died.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the late home to the St. Peter's Evangelical church, Rev. G. Lambrecht officiating. Rev. Mr. Hotz, pastor of the Peotone Evangelical church, preached in English. The large church was crowded to capacity by the host of relatives and friends who came to pay their final tributes of respect to the memory of the departed. Burial was in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband, John Hanson, three daughters, Mrs. Albert Staffenberg, Mrs. Ferdinand Scheer, Mrs. Edward Vollrath and eight grandchildren.

MAKES PART OF ENDURANCE DRIVE.

The Overland Auto company are making an endurance drive of their Model Four touring car from New York to San Francisco, a distance of 4,000 miles. The motor of the car is not to be stopped at any time during the drive except in case of trouble. Drivers will take the car a certain distance and will be met by another driver who will take the car further on. Adam Heuser of the local H. M. & G. Overland company, drove the car from Indianapolis to Joliet Tuesday. At Joliet another driver met the car and continued on. The trip is to be made in seven days and is to be a test against time and of the motor.

FRANKFORT DEFEATED BY NEW LENOX.

What is said to have been one of the largest attended baseball games of the season staged in this section was played last Sunday on the Folker's diamond when about 300 fans watched a scrappy game between Frankfort and New Lenox. The game was fast and furious. In the last inning the score stood 5 to 7 in favor of Frankfort, but forced-in runs turned the seemingly near victory into defeat and New Lenox was the winner by a score of 7 to 8. Next Sunday Frankfort plays the Tinley Park team on the local diamond.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY.

A large company of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Prof. J. M. Clark Saturday night to celebrate his birthday. The affair came as a surprise to the professor. The evening was pleasantly spent in a social way. Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Clark and Dr. Paul Clark of Chicago and Byron and Leonard Trexler of Harvey came out to attend the celebration.

TO HOLD COFFEE JULY 29.

The monthly coffee of the St. Peter's Evangelical church Ladies' Aid society will be held at the church parlors on July 29. During the month of June the regular coffee was not held. It is hoped that the coffee this month will have a good attendance. Everyone is invited.

ENTERTAINS HOME IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

The Frankfort Home Improvement club was entertained last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Warning. About twenty-five members were present. A very good program was carried out. On Thursday a large delegation of the Frankfort club attended the county meeting held at Electric park, Plainfield.

BROTHERHOOD PICNIC SUNDAY.

The Brotherhood of the St. Peter's Evangelical church will hold their first annual picnic at the Borman grove next Sunday afternoon. A big time is anticipated. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

RETURNS FROM VACATION.

Rev. and Mrs. G. Lambrecht, who have been away on a two weeks' vacation, returned the first of the week from Moline where they had spent their vacation with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Berst and family.

ALBERT SCHROEDER DIES.

Albert Schroeder, a former resident of this section and widely known throughout this locality, died at his home in Chicago a week ago Saturday. He had been ill with tuberculosis for three years during which time he was a patient at the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium. For a while he appeared to be improving and then had a relapse. The funeral services were held last Monday, Rev. G. Lambrecht of the local St. Peter's Evangelical church officiating. Services were held at the home in Chicago. Burial was in Montrose cemetery. The deceased was forty-nine years old. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and a son.

CAMPING IN YELLOWSTONE PARK.

Clarence Folkers, who is with the Reserved Officers' Training corps, is enjoying a delightful outing camping in the Yellowstone National park. He expects to remain there for a month.

BREAKS ARM.

While Everett, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jacobs, was playing he fell off of a cart wagon and broke his forearm. Dr. W. V. Hedges was called and set the broken member.

Born on July 18 to Mr. and Mrs. John Belz a 3½-pound son.

Hay making is the order of the day here at present. The yield is good and quality is good, too.

The dance given by the Industrial club last Saturday night was well attended.

The oiling of the streets has been completed. The oil was extra heavy and is slow in drying.

On July 14 Floyd Lankenau and Bertion Breidert went under an operation at the Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. Dr. W. V. Hedges performed the operation.

Miss Sylvia Pfaff underwent an operation at the Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, the past week. She is doing nicely.

Mrs. William Elbers was operated on for appendicitis at the Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, the past week. Dr. W. V. Hedges performed the operation. She is convalescing favorably.

John F. Schultz, the new Canada thistle commissioner, reports that the farm owners and tenants are taking good care of the Canada thistle crop. They are busily engaged cutting the weed to prevent it from going to seed.

MARLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harnew of Oak Lawn and Miss Elizabeth Beckwith of Worth visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Handorf.

MOTOR TO IOWA.

C. F. Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Haley have motored to Earlsville, Ia., where the former has a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Haley have gone on to Omaha to visit relatives.

Mrs. Edward Werner, who recently underwent an operation, has undergone another operation at the Silver Cross hospital, Joliet. She is doing as well as can be expected.

ENTERTAINS SCIENCE CLUB.

The members of the Household Science club and their families were entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cleveland. The evening was spent in playing games following which refreshments were served.

Fifteen of the members attended the meeting of the county Household Science clubs held at Electric park, Plainfield, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Marti and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eckhardt and son of Kempton and Albert Marti of Joliet were guests at the Bert Spies home over Sunday.

NO ONE WANTS CARRIER JOB.

The Tinley Park post office finds itself in a rather peculiar position. The route, which was formerly served by Christ Andres, now postmaster, has no carrier, and from all indications it is a hard proposition to get one as no one seems to want the job. Postmaster Andres has had to fill the breach and has been doing duty as both postmaster and carrier.

COUNTY ADVISOR MEETING.

The Cook county advisor will be at the Association of Commerce rooms in Blue Island every Thursday where he will meet with the farmers in consultation on matters pertaining to crops, stock, etc. He will be in his office in the city mentioned all day Thursday of each week.

MAIL CARRIERS PLAN PICNIC AT TINLEY PARK

Tinley Park, July 23—The Cook County Mail Carriers Association is arranging to hold a big picnic at the Linden Garden sometime next month, the date to be announced later. It is estimated that several thousand mail carriers from Chicago as well as rural carriers of the county will be present. This will be one of the largest picnics which has been held here this summer.

TINLEY LOSES TO BLUE ISLAND IN HOTLY CONTESTED GAME

The Tinley Park base ball team played an intensely interesting game with the crack Blue Island Triangles Sunday, and lost by a score of 1 to 3 after putting up a very spirited contest. The local players had plenty of smokes and pep but fate seemed to be against them. The local players were game losers, however. The battery for Tinley Park was Weyman and Unger, for Blue Island, Woods and Gordan. Following is the score: Bullfrogs 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 Triangles 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3

Next Sunday, the Tinley Park team plays the Frankfort nine at Frankfort. A lively game is awaited and all the "fans" are invited to attend. BULLFROGS TO DANCE AUG. 14

The Tinley Park Bull Frog Base Ball Team will give a big dance at the Linden Garden on the evening of August 14. All the fans are plugging for a big crowd and everyone is invited to attend and help the boys make the affair a big success.

Tinley Park has a real smart set all of its own. The membership consists of some of the most popular young people in town. They are known, however, not as the smart set, but as the younger set. Last Thursday evening they enjoyed a very delightful evening at the home of George Stockman. An informal dance was the attraction of the evening. Prizes were awarded the best dancers. Miss Emily Funk and Walter Bruening carried off first honors as the best waltzers and were awarded a stick of candy which was divided fifty-fifty. Miss Louise Stricker and Chester Rick carried off the honors as the best on-steppers and were awarded a box of candy which was also divided fifty-fifty. At midnight a dainty luncheon was served. It is said this was a real "classy" gathering.

PICNIC BIG AFFAIR.

The Sunday school picnic given by the Zion Lutheran church at Recker's grove Sunday, was a big affair. It is estimated that fully 500 people were present. The St. Stephan congregation of Chicago had joined the local Lutheran church in the picnic. Many people came from the surrounding towns and from Joliet and Chicago.

STORK IS BUSY BIRD.

The stork has been a busy bird in Tinley Park recently and has left smiles on the faces of proud parents that won't come off. Edward Mohr is one of the smiling parents and he claims he has a right to be smiling, for you know he is the father of a fine son born July 6. On the other hand our genial implement dealer, Edward Goessel, is also wearing a broad smile and says its a girl who came to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Goessel on July 18.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY.

A large company of neighbors and friends gathered Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Rice to celebrate her birthday anniversary. A large number of Blue Island people were present.

MRS. RIED IS DEAD.

Mrs. Anna Ried, aged seventy-eight years, died early Monday morning at Oak Forest. Funeral services were held Wednesday, Rev. A. Buddenhagen officiating. The deceased is survived by her husband, William Ried, one son, Henry, and one brother, Henry Simon, of Chicago, also one grandchild.

MRS. JOHN BAUMGART DIES.

Mrs. John Baumgart of Blue Island, also quite well known here, died in that city Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday from the late home with burial in the Orland cemetery. A number of Tinley Park people attended the funeral.

NEW LENOX CAMP MEETING AUG. 22-29

The annual New Lenox camp meeting is scheduled to be held this year from August 22 to 29, inclusive. This year the time of the program will be limited to one week instead of the customary ten days. A very excellent program is in the course of formation.

PLAN FOR CARNIVAL.

The Ladies' Aid society of the New Lenox Grace Episcopal church will meet this week to perfect plans for the holding of a carnival sometime in August, the exact date to be announced later.

Miss Edna McDowell local manager of the Chicago Telephone company, spent Saturday in Chicago with friends visiting and sight-seeing in Lincoln park.

Miss Rilla Fellows of Chicago is a guest this week at the John Urch home.

Miss Elizabeth Delany's pupils will appear in their annual piano recital at Hoermann's Theater, Manhattan, Saturday afternoon, July 31st at two o'clock. The public is invited.

ORLAND

The infant son of Ernest Monson and wife of near Orland was baptized by Reverend Brown Sunday afternoon at their home. A number of friends were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Will Hewson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ericson and their families.

Mrs. N. E. Ward and Miss L. M. Ward of Petaluma, Cal., who had been visiting relatives in Orland and Chicago for ten months, went Thursday to Detroit, Mich., to visit Mrs. Ward's son for a few weeks.

Mr. Helenhouse, who was sick for a while, is able to be around again.

Miss Anderson of Burnside hospital and her sister were visiting Mrs. David Agate Sunday.

Miss Ersel Kettering is visiting her former home in Brentford, S. D.

Howard Hewson entertained a number of the young people in his home Wednesday night, July 14.

Mrs. Albert Cooper of Rockford, Ill., spent a few days at the home of Mr. John Cooper and attended church Sunday morning.

Tinley Park

The new market of Adam Keuch was opened for business Monday morning.

Some of our public spirited citizens feel that Tinley Park ought to have some kind of attraction to bring more people into town and thus help the local trade. A band concert is suggested as a weekly feature and the more enterprising ones are suggesting a carnival along the lines of the carnivals held at Blue Island, Harvey, Phenix and other nearby cities. Let us hope that something will come of these suggestions.

Hay making is in full progress now. The hay is of good quality. The yield is better than at first thought it would be. Corn and oats are also thriving well. Big crops are looked for. Potatoes, however, may be a small crop as green lice are destroying the plants. Potato bugs can be killed by paris green, but the poison does not have effect on the lice who lodge underneath the leaves where the poison does not reach them.

Miss Grace Morton of Forest Park is spending her vacation with the Henry Schoeneck family.

Rev. E. Barkow of Swanville, Minn., and John Barkow of Milwaukee are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. Buddenhagen this week. They are brothers of Mrs. Buddenhagen.

REMODELLING CHURCH.

A new stamped steel ceiling is being installed in the local Zion Lutheran church this week. The interior is to be newly painted and varnished. In the mean time church services will be held on the lawn. Text Sunday and the parsonage following. In possibly the Sunday, a tree will be held case of rain the services will be held in the German school house.

OBSERVE BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Kate Hopman entertained a company of neighbors and friends at a party held at her home recently in honor of her birthday anniversary. A good time was enjoyed by all.

PASTORS SPEAK AT PICNIC.

At the Zion Lutheran Sunday school picnic held Sunday at Recker's grove, divine services were held in the grove in the morning. Rev. Mr. Fandrey of Chicago, president of the southern district of Iowa and other states of the Lutheran church, and Rev. Mr. Groenlund of Forest Park, besides Rev. A. Buddenhagen of the local Zion Lutheran church, preached the morning sermon.

Last Night's Dreams

—What They Mean

EATING.

THE question of eating is a very serious and unsettled one in Dreamland and about it the authorities dispute as acrimoniously as do those given to the eating habit in the world of realities over who is responsible for the present high cost of living. According to some, to dream that you are eating in company with others, either at the family dinner-table or at a banquet, is a sign that you will be successful in profitable undertakings and that your surroundings will be pleasant and cheerful. The opposing school warns you to beware of attending a dream banquet as that signifies that secret enemies are plotting against you, recommending only a small family party at the table. To dream of eating at all, say some of the oracles, means that you are going to spend money foolishly, to which the other side retorts that every one does, sometimes, spend money foolishly but not on the banquets of Dreamland, which are attended with profit and success. Perhaps the reason for this disagreement of the mystic authorities is that the old saying "What is one man's meat is another man's poison" holds good in the realm of shadow as well as out of it and that the phantom food of dream tables gives nourishment and strength to some egos while it gives others psychic indigestion. As the authorities refuse to agree on the eating subject the reader must determine it for himself. The next time you dream of eating observe what happens and then say which school of mystics is right. As to different articles of food even the pessimists admit that it is a good sign to dream of eating broiled meat. Potatoes are looked upon with favor but the ban is placed upon turnips, as they mean quarreling, and salads are declared to be distinctly unwholesome. Oysters, especially if raw, are the most highly recommended of dream foods. Eaten in any form they denote friendship and if raw splendid successes. All the pessimists can say against them is that they mean that you are going to become a gourmand. Many hold that to dream of being at a banquet means that you will soon go on a journey or will change your residence or place of business. These same people say that while it is unlucky to eat at a dream banquet yourself, to see others eating foretells great success in all your enterprises. If you are unmarried you shall wed the one you love and live happy ever after with riches and dutiful children.

SCHOOL DAYS

(Copyright.)

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE FRONT SEAT.

When I was but a little lad I always liked to ride, No matter what the rig we had, right by the driver's side. The front seat was the honor place in bob-sleigh, coach or hack. And I maneuvered to avoid the cushions in the back. We children used to scramble then to share the driver's seat. And long the pout I wore when I was not allowed that treat. Though times have changed and I am old I still confess I race With other grown-ups now and then to get my favorite place.

The auto with its cushions fine and big and easy springs Has altered in our daily lives innumerable things. But hearts of men are still the same as what they used to be, When surreys were the stylish rigs, or so they seem to me. For every grown-up girl today and every grown-up boy Still hunger for the seat in front and scramble for its joy. And riding by the driver's side still holds the charm it did In those glad, youthful days gone by when I was just a kid.

I hurry, as I used to do, to claim that favorite place, And when a tonneau seat is mine I wear a solemn face. I try to hide the pout I feel, and do my best to smile, But envy of the man in front gnaws at me all the while. I want to be where I can see the road that lies ahead, To watch the trees go flying by and see the country spread. Before me as I spin along, for there I miss the fear That seems to grip the soul of me while riding in the rear.

And I am not alone in this. Today I drive a car And three glad youngsters, madly strive to share the "seat with Pa." And older folks that ride with us, I very plainly see, Maneuver in their artful ways to sit in front with me. Though all the cushions in the world were piled up in the rear. The child in all of us still longs to watch the engineer, And happier hearts we seem to own when we're allowed to ride, No matter what the car may be, close by the driver's side.

(Copyright by Edgar A. Guest.)

Second Wind

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE race of Success is won just like any other race—on Second Wind. Second Wind is nothing more or less than reserve power responding and carrying one through to the end. Be a Second Wind Performer. Some people never experience Second Wind—simply because they never put forth the necessary effort to enable them to draw on their reserve lung space. But the reserve is there just the same.

Be a Second Wind Performer. The successful man goes through all the little processes of failure and discouragement and defeat—then he gets his Second Wind—pushes all the setbacks aside, and carrying great momentum, he goes on and on. This is always the story of the one who has the courage and stamina to press on until the Second Wind is reached.

Be a Second Wind Performer. If you want to experience the delight and power that results from the acquiring of your Second Wind you have but to do more than you are told to do—more than you have to do. Second Wind comes through Initiative, Enthusiasm and Determination. Be a Second Wind Performer.

MOTHER'S COOK BOOK by Nellie Maxwell

"When you taste a blueberry pie that you have just made and feel a thrill of pride at its delicious flavor, always remember that you didn't make the blueberries."

Rhubarb Conserve. Take five pounds of sugar, five pounds of rhubarb, four oranges, two pounds of raisins. Cut up the fruit, remove the seeds from the oranges and put through a meat grinder. Cook all together until thick.

Cherry Preserves. Take two pints of sugar, one small cupful of water, boil until it hairs, add three pints of pitted cherries and boil fifteen minutes. Pour into an earthen dish and let stand overnight. In the morning seal in sterile cans, cold.

Grape Conserve.

Take seven pounds of ripe grapes. Pulp them, removing the seeds, then to the skins and seeds add the grated rind and strained juice of four oranges, the juice of two lemons, boil together fifteen minutes, then add five pounds of sugar, one pound of seeded raisins, one pint of canned cherries drained from their juice and one-half pound of pecan meats, and one cupful of water. Cook fifteen minutes then pour into glasses or jars.

(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

BLACK FOX OBEYS

BLACK FOX ran all the way to the farm on the other side of the forest, there to hide until it was light and then change himself into a turkey, for once in this form he could run along with all the turkeys and fowl until he could entice them far enough from the farm, and then he would change into his own form and catch some of them for his breakfast. Black Fox could not wait for the day to break to try his enchanted spell, so he wished three times to be a turkey, thinking it would be just as well to be ready when the turkey awoke.

An old witch had kept her promise just as Black Fox had kept his. She gave him the power to change his form, but not into that of a turkey.

Instead, when he had wished three times he found himself a big green frog.

Black Fox began to hop about, trying to find a place to hide while he thought what he should do.

Under a low bush he hopped, but he found he was longing for water as he never had before. Not a drop was there to be seen. The only thing to do was to hop along until he found some.

It was not so easy to get over the ground as it was when he was a fox, and while he was stopping to rest Black Fox remembered he had asked for power to change into his own shape again, so he wished three times to become a fox.

The old witch had not kept this part of the promise, for, wish as hard and as often as he liked, he still remained a frog.

It was a long time before he came to water, and when he did, in he hopped, and, being refreshed, he began to think about the witch.

"She must have made a mistake and have given me the 'wrong drink,'" thought Black Fox.

"I suppose the only thing to do is to get to her cave and ask her to change me back again."

All day and all night he hopped over stones and through brush until, when he finally did reach the cave of the old witch, he was so tired that he fell over on his back in front of the cave door.

The Black Cat found him and began

GOTTA plenty trouble other day for buy da new suit. I see da advertise een da paper so I go one store or geeva look. Man putta streeng voeth numbers on rounda my waist and say "bout 42, huh?" I dunno eef ie gueessa my birthday ees 42 or eef la suit is 42 bucks. Both ees too nooch, so I tink mebbe I buy da eette suit and wait for grow up so veel fita me.

Dat man wot sella da suit aska me, "You wanta Engleesh cut suit?" I lay I no care eef ees Engleesh, Irish, United States or wot kinda nationality, but I wanta whole suit and not me wot's cut up alla ready. I no care vot ceeteez ees da suit so longa ees so German.

But he say I gotta wrong idee. He sella me Engleesh ees tighta fit and Conservative no toucha so close alla round. I dunno wot Conservative ees—mebbe some relash to Bullshevek. I dunno—so I feegure Engleesh ees besta one.

"You wanta peench back?" he aska me.

Now wot a devil I wanta suit wot peench da back for. I never gotta peench once before only driva da fleever too moocha hurry, so I no like to gotta peench when buy da new suit. But he tella me everybody gotta peench back clothes. Well, I lika he leetle swell guy, too, so I decida mebbe splitta deefrence—getta one dat jusa scratcha da back and no peench. But when I aska has he gotta scratch back suit he wanta know eef I gotta cootie.

He aska eef I wanta two or tree piece suit. Mebbe he tinks I am da peace commish, I dunno. I no unerstanda wot suit gotta do weeth da peace, but I say I am favor da league for nations and eef gotta have more as one peace I wanta fourteen point peace lika President Weelson.

Wot you tink?

to poke him with her sharp claws and meow so loudly that out came the witch. When she saw the frog on the ground she began to laugh in a shrill, cackling tone and dance about the poor frog, while the cat joined with her mistress, and every once in a while would poke froggie with her claws.

By and by the wild dance stopped and the witch gave him a tap with her magic stick, which made the frog sit up and listen to what she said.

"You thought you could deceive a witch, did you, Black Fox?" she said. "You see now that you couldn't. I knew the stone you brought as I told you to bring to me was not from the bottom of the pool and I kept my part of the bargain just as you kept yours."

"Give me back my own form again and I promise to bring the stone you wish," said the frog.

"There is only one way in which you can regain your own shape," said the witch, leaning on her stick and looking at poor froggie. "and that is to hop to the forest pool each day and bring me a stone from the bottom of it. When I have all I want you will have your own shape again, and not before. Will you go or will you remain a frog?"

"I'll go to the pool and return with a stone," mournfully replied the frog as he hopped away.

(Copyright.)

BEAUTY CHATS

by Edna Kent Forbes

THE HOME SHAMPOO

MUCH of the effectiveness of a shampoo depends upon where and how the hair is dried. If it is possible to dry the hair in the sun and air outdoors, it will do the head three or four times as much good as though the whole operation were completed inside the room.

For this reason, the home shampoo should be better than the professional sort which costs anywhere from a half dollar to two dollars. Professionals dry the head with a hot-air machine that blows the hair into snarls and dries out much of the new oils that the massage and the

you will realize that one soaping is not enough.

For the head must not be just clean, it must be antiseptically clean, to avoid dandruff and falling hair. And there is a difference between them.

Of course, every woman knows how carefully the hair must be rinsed and dried, and that a tonic rubbed on immediately after is always advisable.

(Copyright.)

Off Again On Again
STRICKLAND W. GILLILAN

(Copyright.)

The Little White Restaurant.

We have visited places of wondrous repute for feeding you viands delicious and rare;

We've been bowed to by flunkies, have had them remove our topcoat and hat as we entered their lair;

We've been furnished with fingerbowls, stylish delay, with silver superfluous, solid and good;

But mostly we sneak to a different place—the little white room where you pay for mere food!

For mostly at meal time when we would inhale some yearned-after substance, wholesomely cooked,

The feeding itself is the thing we require—we often forget how the eating-place looked.

And how to secure what the stomach requires without being robbed (to be afterwards rued)

Is always our problem; and so we seek out the little white place where they charge for mere food.

As clean as the soul of a newly-born babe we always have found the accommodations there;

The "overhead charges"—there wasn't a sign of that bugaboo that one meets everywhere!

You pay half the price of the stylish "caffays" for food just as fine, and no flunkies intrude.

There's peace for the soul in the plain little room—the little white place where they charge for mere food.

We Learned to Be Useful.

Fortunately for us and our children, most of us were brought up and taught to hustle, before the child labor laws were even thought of. Otherwise we wouldn't be able to make a living.

FINNICIN FILOSOFY.

The smart aleck is th' finest case of arrested development that annybody kin imagine.

CROSBY'S KIDS

LOOK HERE, BOY! HOW LONG ARE YOU GOING TO STAND THERE ASKING ME QUESTIONS?

WELL, YOU AIN'T ANSWERING 'EM. ARE YER?

What the Sphinx Says.

By Newton Newkirk.

"The man who gets stung in a horse—swap generally regards himself as considerable of a jackass."

MILITANT MARY

My boob beau called again last night and I was sorely TRIED—If that guy doesn't stay at home I'll COMMIT HOMICIDE!

—E. FitzHugh

Maharajas and Their Jewels

Maharaja of Indore in the Peacock Turban.

SHOULD you ever feel inclined to verify tales of "The Thousand and One Persian Days," which usually begin with something like "Once upon a time there was a rajah who sat upon a golden throne, and slept upon a pearl carpet, and built a golden-roofed pavilion for a beautiful queen," you may journey comfortably to India, then on to Delhi and Agra, and see the empty palaces of the Mogul kings, which are very little changed save that they now reverberate mournfully to the footfall of western shod feet, and their marble walls have been mellowed to the tint of old ivory by 250 years of Indian sun. So writes Eleanor Maddock in Asia.

You may walk among the colonnades of the great Hall of Audience inlaid with flowers of lapis lazuli, jade, topaz and carnelian that seem to grow upon the walls, and burst into bloom on the very spot where rested Shah Jahan's "Peacock Throne," a glorified four poster bedstead of solid gold with a pearl-fringed canopy upon which the emperor sat daily to dispense justice, his turban ablaze with diamonds and his flowered tunic almost hidden by ropes of pearls. Behind him sapphires, rubies and emeralds glowed from the outspread tails of two peacocks and over his head hung a parrot wrought from a single emerald, holding in its beak the Koh-i-nor diamond.

You may enter the great silent harem without hindrance and pause before the lace-like marble screen which overlooks the cool scented garden, heavy with the perfume of orange and mango blossoms. A staircase leads from the garden to a queen Arjamund's golden-roofed pavilion and rose water bath—all a solid mass of exquisite inlay—and in the thickness of the marble walls are cunningly contrived apertures just large enough to admit a woman's hand, where the queen kept her jewels at night.

It is a long time since Shah Jahan's empress was laid under the swelling dome of the Taj Mahal across the River Jumna, yet her personality lingers in her boudoir of fretwork arches, where she bedecked herself with jewels more dazzling and splendid than any woman has ever worn before or since.

Pearl Carpet Really Exists.

But that such a thing as a pearl carpet could exist outside fiction would be a tax on credulity, did it not actually hang on the wall of the Nuzerbagh palace at Baroda. This relic of a past era of bizarre extravagance is described as 8x6 feet. Three large diamond flower patterns form the center; 32 smaller diamond patterns, and 1,269 rubies, 569 emeralds in flower designs form the border; the remaining portion of the carpet is composed of seed pearls, although in places along the outer edge they have been removed and replaced by glass beads. A more absurd and useless object, apart from its monetary value, would be hard to find even in India. But, if we hark back to the time before the rich gem mines, the extensive pearl fisheries on the west coast and on the island of Ceylon had been exhausted, when they were yielding their treasure by the bucketful, it takes little effort of the imagination to picture an eastern potentate, laden with jewels until he could scarcely sustain their weight, reclining on the Peacock throne before the pearl carpet.

Such treasure, being in itself indestructible, has descended through the dynasties of the Hindu kings, and later of the Mogul emperors, when laden caravans from Persia were constantly adding to their wealth. So that the jewels owned today by the rajahs and ruling princes of India, estimated not by numbers, but by measure, are no myth, but just plain fact.

The Delhi Loot.

The Nawab of Bahawalpur owns a portion of what is known as the "Delhi loot," which, as a whole, once constituted the Mogul emperors' crown jewels, filched by them in turn from the Hindus and their ancient temples. So it was fitting that some should have found their way back. History records that every gem in the almost fabulous collection has been figuratively, if not literally, drenched in blood. There are ornaments for the front of turbans; caps to cover the head fashioned entirely of jewels, with just enough gold filigree to hold them in place; ropes of pearls, rubies and emeralds; numberless rings, bracelets and anklets for women. There is a wonderful diamond necklace called the "Garland of Delight," the largest stone of which measures one and one quarter inches in diameter.

The "Garland of Delight" has blazed an imperishable trail through the history of eastern romance, which is ever akin to tragedy. It was worn secretly for a brief span by Gul Saffa, the "White Rose," a beautiful dancing girl whose story bears repeating. She was the mistress of Dara, who was a brother of Emperor Aurangzeb, the last of the four great Moguls. Dara and Aurangzeb, sons of Shah Jahan, were both ambitious to sit on the Peacock throne. But Aurangzeb, nicknamed the "White Snake," because he was born with a curiously white skin, after he had removed all obstacles, including his brother, managed eventually to coil himself on the cushions of the Peacock throne. After Dara's death the emperor seized his brother's possessions, including the "Garland of Delight" and Gul Saffa. She was said to have in her veins blood of the Hindu Rajputs, the race long noted for the beauty and chastity of its women. So, when Aurangzeb demanded her, she said she belonged to Dara and asked on what grounds he claimed her. The emperor replied that her long tresses had bound him as in a net. That night a messenger brought a package to him, wherein lay coil upon coil of perfumed hair. Again the emperor sent back word that it was the moon-like beauty of her face that had enthralled him. Then the girl took a knife and slashed her face until it was hideous to look upon. She wiped the blood from it with a cloth and sent it to the emperor, as a sign that nothing was left of the beauty he had desired. He never troubled Gul Saffa again, who soon died of grief for her lover.

The native state of Baroda is close to the Runn of Cutch, and the state of Indore had easy access to it. In its quiet twisting waterways lay rich pearl oyster beds, which, in the old days, were infested with pirates. Doubtless the ancestors of the present highnesses of these states got their share of "first pickings," since the Maharaja Gaekwar of Baroda has the largest collection of pearls in India, although the handsome young Maharaja Holkar of Indore runs him a close second. I sat near this resplendent personage once at a Royal Hindu wedding, close enough to hear a pleasant little tinkling sound when he moved, for he was wearing his "pearl scarf," which he values at a crore of rupees ($3,300,000). It is composed of nine strands of cream luster pearls as large as marrowfat peas, that hang from a thick pearl tassel over one shoulder, across his chest to his hips, scarf fashion. Eighteen great pearls, each with a carat diamond set into it, form the clasp of the neckpiece. Think of the vandalism of drilling them! Maharaja Holkar has inherited his father's peacock turban, another marvel of pearls, rubies, emeralds and diamonds.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Bonner

IN THE BARNYARD.

"All wild animals like to go together," said Mrs. Hen, "and for that matter all of the tame ones do too. By tame ones I mean we creatures of the barnyard—just as nice creatures as ever happened or will happen, except when more of us come around."

"Now the rabbits are often very tame, but they aren't barnyard animals. They are very fond of lots of the things that the farmer has. For example they simply adore carrots."

"They love clover and many of the other vegetables and how they do relish lettuce! So that I always feel that rabbits are rather near and friendly with us as they like the farmer's food and enjoy home-grown things."

"But as I was saying, lions go together, tigers go together, dogs go together, buffaloes go together, fishes go together, we all go together. All the animals I mentioned aren't wild, however." She grinned a hen's grin.

"I am indeed glad that a tiger, for example, doesn't come along and ask me to take a walk. If a tiger should do such a thing I would most politely say no."

"But we hens all go together and walk about the barnyard in a most friendly fashion."

"Now I have always been more than a mere barnyard creature, an ordinarily tame animal. I am very tame. Perhaps I should not call myself a tame animal but should call myself a tame fowl."

"I will get up in the lap of the farmer's wife. I do not mind getting up in the laps of the children. I don't mind that in the least."

"But the children wriggle more than the farmer's wife does and I am not so happy in their laps. They're restless young dears, they are."

"So many of the chickens are tame just as I am and they too will get up in the lap of the farmer's wife."

"Then Mrs. Pullet Hen will tell stories to her young chickens. Mrs. Pullet is, as you know, very small in size."

"We're all such a friendly lot. And how we do like feeding time! Cackle, cackle, cackle, that is most exciting."

"Of course, we aren't greedy like the pigs are, but we do show joy over our food, a nice, enthusiastic, cordial kind of joy."

"What do all those words mean?" asked Mrs. White Hen.

"Oh," said Mrs. Hen, "they mean the same as eager and glad and all such things. Aren't they nice words?"

"Cackle, cackle, cackle, they're most nice words," Mrs. White Hen said.

"All wild animals," said Mrs. Hen, "are apt to fight. They never fight on any general, chosen place, but on each other's grounds, as a rule. One of them in defense, as a rule."

"What in the world," said Mrs. White Hen, "are you doing all this talk about wild animals for? I've been hearing you talk all the afternoon and you've mentioned wild animals in every other breath."

"Not that much, quite," said Mrs. Hen. "But you know when one is a barnyard animal and has been one all one's life and never expects to be anything else, it is nice once in awhile to talk of a wild life, don't you think it is?"

"That is a funny idea," said Mrs. White Hen. "And it is especially funny coming from you, for you are as tame as any hen we ever had on the farm and you keep all your children following your footsteps."

"They don't always follow my footsteps," said Mrs. Hen. "In fact, they rarely follow my footsteps."

"Oh I mean," said Mrs. White Hen, "that they do as you do. They follow your example, in other words."

"Oh, I see what you mean," said Mrs. Hen. "Yes, they do what I say, but now and then I take a talking holiday when I talk of all sorts of things away from the barnyards. Just as people take trips and go to different places so do I take trips and talk differently and of different things. I suppose I am a funny hen; I suppose I am."

Point.

Teacher—William, what is income tax?

Willie—It is when you sit on a tack.

Teacher—No, I'm afraid you don't see the point.

Willie—You don't, sir; you feel it.—Boys' Life.

UNIFORM POTATO GRADES FAVORED

Potatoes Graded and Packed Ready for Market.

Proper distribution of farm products requires, first of all, that a common understanding exist as the basis of negotiations between producers and purchasers. The bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture, is endeavoring to bring this about by the recommendation of grades for fruits and vegetables. No. 2 potatoes should be No. 2 potatoes throughout the United States and not, as at present No. 2 potatoes in one section of the country and No. 1 somewhere else.

Higher Grade Demanded.

During the war period the United States food administration required licensed dealers to use government potato grades. The results were so satisfactory that when the regulation was canceled the use of grades to a large extent was continued voluntarily. In fact, since that time a higher grade has been demanded to provide for produce of highest quality.

Therefore the bureau of markets now recommends United States grade fancy in addition to grades No. 1 and No. 2.

Grade fancy consists of sound potatoes of one variety which are mature, bright, smooth, well shaped, free from dirt or other foreign matter, frost injury, sunburn, second growth, growth cracks, cuts, scab, soft rot, dry rot, and damage caused by diseases, insects or mechanical or other means. The range in size shall be stated in terms of minimum and maximum diameter or weight following the grade name, but in no case shall the diameter be less than two inches.

In order to allow for variations incident to commercial grading and handling 5 per cent by weight of any lot may vary from the range in size stated, and, in addition, 3 per cent by weight of any such lot may be below the remaining requirements of this grade, but not more than one-third of such 3 per cent; that is to say, not more than 1 per cent by weight of the entire lot may have the flesh injured by soft rot.

Particulars in Circular.

Complete particulars regarding United States potato grades are contained in Department Circular 96, which will be mailed free upon request to the bureau of markets.

Running Potatoes Through a Grader—An Increasing Number of Growers Are Doing This and So It Is More Important Than Ever That Uniform Grades for the Entire Country Be Followed.

MAKING FINE RECORD FOR IMPROVED SIRE

Virginia Leads Country in Effort to Discard Scrubs.

Many Farmers of Pulaski County File Declaration They Will Follow Methods to Further Live Stock Improvement.

With over 10,000 head of domestic animals in addition to poultry enrolled in the "Better Sires—Better Stock" movement, Virginia leads all other states in the nation-wide effort to rid the country of scrub and other inferior sires. The stock mentioned is owned by 670 farmers, of whom 354 are in Pulaski county, Virginia. All of these live stock owners have filed with the United States department of agriculture declarations that they will not only use pure-bred sires, but will follow methods leading to further live stock improvement.

The bureau of animal industry, which is handling the enrollment records, received from Virginia recently 72 pledges in one day. Of this number 18 contained statements that purebred sires, including rams, boars and roosters, would be purchased. Cases of this kind show that the movement is not only educational, but is gradually resulting in the replacement of inferior males with purebreds.

THIN ALL PLANTS IN GARDEN

Tall, Spindly, Unhealthy Conditions Result Where Practice Is Not Followed.

Nearly all home gardeners plant more seed than necessary, in order to get a full stand of plants. As soon as these are large enough to handle easily, all excess plants should be pulled out, leaving enough space between the plants remaining for the vegetables to develop properly. If this practice is not followed, not only do the crowded conditions cause tall, spindly, unhealthy growth, but the excess plants act as weeds, using up the plant food and moisture that should be available for the crop.

VEGETABLES STORED FOR USE IN WINTER

Good Time to Begin Plans for Saving Garden Truck.

Money Will Be Saved and Variety Added to Menus by Preparing Room in Basement or Outdoor Cellar or Pit.

One of these nights not far distant there will be a frost. That means, does it not, that huge basket of pumpkins, squash, beets, onions, tomatoes, apples and other vegetables and fruit grown in your garden and orchard, must be brought in and saved for winter use?

Before that time the question of storage must be settled. If you have never had them to store before or did not have success in the methods used last year, or want to know more about the subject for general information, send for a copy of "Home Storing of Vegetables," Farmers' Bulletin 879, United States department of agriculture.

Different types of inexpensive and reliable storage places, the room in the basement of the dwelling, the outdoor storage cellar or cave, the bank or pit, are described in detail. The saving in money and the additional variety in your winter menus will more than pay you for spending time in preparation for good, careful storage.

CLOVER SEED IS PROFITABLE

Vigorous Second Crop May Be Obtained If Cut Early and Given Light Dressing.

Clover, if cut early when just coming into blossom and given a light dressing of land plaster or of any fine compost, will, if the stalks are strong, make a vigorous second growth and ripen a paying crop of seed. Every farmer might raise his own clover seed by this method. The seed comes from the second crop and not from the first crop.

Plaster is the best and most economical mineral fertilizer to use.

POULTRY

KEEP POULTRY HOUSE CLEAN

Excrement Harbors Parasites, Contaminates Air and Breeds Contagion of Many Kinds.

Everything about a poultry house should be kept reasonably clean. As a rule droppings should be removed daily, for the accumulation of excrement harbors parasites, contaminates the air, and breeds contagion. After the dropping boards have been cleaned they should be sprinkled with road dust, coal ashes, or land plaster, to absorb the liquid excrement, the poultry division of the United States department of agriculture suggests. Nests in which straw or other similar material is used should be cleaned every three or four weeks, or oftener if it becomes damp or dirty.

Handy for Spraying Interior of Hen House.

ery three or four weeks, or oftener if it becomes damp or dirty.

The quarters should be thoroughly whitewashed at least once a year, late in summer or early in the fall. The whitewash can be made by slaking lime in boiling water and then thinning to the proper consistency for applying. The addition of four ounces of carbolic acid to each gallon of whitewash will increase its disinfecting power. The runs should be plowed occasionally in order to bury the accumulated droppings and also to turn up fresh soil.

KILL DEVITALIZING INSECTS

Paint Roosts With Kerosene Oil to Get Rid of Mites—Use Blue Ointment for Lice.

The protection from mites means simply to paint the roosts about once each week with kerosene oil and the lice can be killed off for the summer by giving each bird the blue ointment treatment at the beginning of hot weather. This has been told many times by poultrymen and probably there is no poultry fact that needs more frequent repetition than the best method of killing these devitalizing pests.

CULLING POOR LAYERS

Cull all hens that show:

1. Well along in the molt with combs and wattles dried up.
2. All that have lay bones less than two fingers apart and small capacity.
3. Abdomen and vent dry and puckered.
4. Yellow shank and beak.
5. Apply all the test; don't apply just a part of it—do it right.

DRY MASH FEED FOR CHICKS

Animal Food in Some Form, Preferably Buttermilk, Should Be Kept Before Fowls.

A dry mash feed should be kept before the chicks continuously—a mash feed containing animal protein in some form, preferably buttermilk, meat scraps or fish scraps. These elements of animal protein in prepared mash feeds are scientifically dried and do not easily decompose.

GET EGGS FROM TURKEY HENS

Increased Production Can Be Obtained by Feeding Ground Oats, Corn and Other Cereals.

Increase of egg production in turkey hens can be done the same as with chickens, by feeding ground oats, ground corn, kafir meal, barley meal, wheat middlings, linseed meal, and sunflower seed, in equal quantities. This can be fed dry in hoppers, or mixed with milk or water.

MITE IS ENEMY OF CHICKEN

Insect Does Not Bother Other Fowls to Any Extent—Carried About in Empty Crates.

Chicken mites do not feed to any great extent upon other hosts when chickens are at hand. They are carried about chiefly by the interchange of poultry and in crates and boxes in which fowls are shipped.

THE NEWS-BULLETIN

PUBLISHED WEEKLY
At Mokena, Illinois

Wm. Semmler,
Editor and publisher

Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1919, at the post office at Mokena, Ill. under the Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
PER YEAR $2.00
SIX MONTHS $1.00

Friday, July 23, 1920

To Our Patrons

On and after this issue, all advertisements must be in this office not later than Tuesday noon to insure publication in the current issue. As we are very busy, advertisers will confer a favor by observing the above request.

Corresponded With 535 Girls.

The mess sergeant at Camp Kelly flying field in Texas declares that he corresponded with 535 girls throughout the duration of the war. The sergeant kept a ledger, showing postage costs, retained copies of all letters and used carbon copies to help out.

Daisy Thought.

"There are no estrangements so intrusive, and yet so insuperable, as those which arise from subtle discords in temperament."—W. H. Malloch, in Harper's.

Instinct, Possibly.

Pelle—"They say that mice have very poor eyesight." Beulah—"Well, how is it that when they want to frighten anyone they always pick out a woman?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Fires 1,200 Years Old.

There are fires in the Zoroastrian churches of Bombay that have not been allowed to go out since they were brought from Persia 1,200 years ago.

Money Doubling Itself.

Money will double itself at 6 per cent simple interest in 16.67 years. Money will double itself at 6 per cent compound interest in 11.90 years.

Continuous Performances.

The home of the gorilla is never more than four days old. After this time, the family moves to another tree and the mother builds the new home.

Luscious, Just the Same.
The average watermelon contains about 93 per cent water and 2 per cent sugar.

Even Doctors Die.

Forty-four per cent of the world's doctors are said to die of heart disease, 20 per cent of nervous ailments, 20 per cent of morphine poison and 7 per cent of tuberculosis.

Azores' Population.

The population of the Azores is about 245,000; the number of its inhabitants having changed but little in the last century, and, if anything, having diminished.

Third Finger Dies Last.

The third finger of the left hand (the wedding ring finger) is said to be the first finger that a new-born babe is able to move and the last of which a dying person loses control.

Irrigation in Spain.

Spain irrigates only 6 per cent of its cultivated land, but the irrigated sections produce about one-fourth of the country's crop.

Take a Look From the Pit.

Between acts at the opera in Buenos Aires men go down to the orchestra pit and, with their opera glasses, scan the occupants of the boxes.

Possible Saving of Lumber.

If spools were wound with 200, instead of 100 to 150, yards of thread, 365 car loads of lumber would be saved each year.

Columbus Properly Honored.

According to the Postal Guide, there are 21 cities and towns in the United States by this name.

Magnetism Arranges Nails.

A machine that by magnetism arranges nails in parallel layers for packing is the device of a Swiss inventor.

Scented As in Tins.
According to the latest medical dictum the man or woman who delights in perfumes is well-advised to indulge this taste, providing they don't use heavy odors. It seems that eau de Cologne, and any fresh flower scent, has a slightly stimulating effect upon people, and in the early spring the use of perfume helps one to throw off the feeling of lassitude that is so often a characteristic of the season. In the summer, too, or whenever one is tired, the rejuvenating effect of a bath pleasantly perfumed is marked.

Beauty in Bells.

There is a beauty in bells which is fast being lost to the modern world. Since we cannot keep them in use as they were hundreds of years ago, we must try to keep up an interest in those which remain, and learn what we can about one of the chief beauties of the Middle Ages. See how many references to bells can be found in great literature. There is one poem which stands out and which we all should know, "The Bells," by Edgar Allan Poe.—Brooklyn Eagle.

World's Largest Opal.

Proclaimed as the largest uncut precious stone in the world, an enormous, absolutely flawless black opal, recently discovered in the United States, is now in the office of a government official in Washington. The gem contains approximately 21 cubic inches and weighs 2,572,332 carats. It is valued at $125,000 by the owners. The famous Viennese opal, which was without an equal until this specimen was found, weighs 1,658,927 carats.

The Stingy Man.

He was known as the stingiest man in town. The Sunday schools were planning a picnic and every one wondered what he would bring. The leader read off the menu and the different members offered to bring this or that. Then one young man said as he didn't have any one to cook for him, he would bring the coffee. Then the stingy man spoke up and said: "I will bring the water for the coffee."

A Solid Cutting Foundation

AFTER all, the principal thing is to get the grain cut—all of it. And in order to do this successfully, a binder must have a smooth-working sickle that will not jam or bind, even when the binder is working on rough ground.

McCormick, Deering, and Milwaukee Grain Binders cut clean—and continue to do so during the entire life of the machine. There is no twisting, sagging or springing of the cutter bar, because the knife works forth and back on a solid foundation—a Z-shaped steel sill that effectually resists heavy strains imposed by operation in rough, uneven fields. There is no rubbing of sickle sections against guards nor binding due to springing or twisting of the sill, for it does not twist or spring.

This is only one of many features that make McCormick, Deering, and Milwaukee Grain Binders so efficient and dependable—that have won for these harvesting machines a world-wide reputation for economical, satisfactory service.

Your local International full-line dealer handles these standard-setting harvesting machines. See him, and place your dependence also in McCormick, Deering, or International twine, and your harvest will be well within your control. Place your order early—service will follow.

Mall Lumber Co.,

MOKENA
ILLINOIS

WHEN IN

TINLEY PARK

STOP AT

CAVALLINI & CO'S

ICE CREAM PARLOR

Where you will always find the Purest and Freshest Ice Cream and Home-Made Candies and Confectioneries.

We also carry a full line of

CIGARS AND TOBACCOS

CAVALLINI & CO.

Tinley Park, Illinois
4818

A Shoe Will

Last Twice as Long
If Properly Repaired
But in order that the shoes may give maximum service, they should be brought to us before the welt is destroyed. Have your shoes re-soled as soon as a hole appears.

JOE CHIEPPO

Tinley Park, Illinois

Professional Cards

DR. C. SCHBER

Dentist

At Your service at All Times

TINLEY PARK, ILL. Tel. 17R

DR. W. V. HEDGES

Office Hours:

2 to 5 and 7 to 8 p. m.

Will not be in Tuesday and Friday evenings. Sunday by appointment only FRANKFORT, ILL.

DR. I. ICKSTADT

Physician, Surgeon, Oculist
EYES TESTED FOR GLASSES
Prompt Service Day or Night
Tel. 11-J
TINLEY PARK, ILL.

DR. G. A. KERR

Office Hours:

2 to 5 and 7 to 8 p. m.

MOKENA, ILL.

Dr. Clarence L. Oesterle
Dentist

Folker's Block, Frankfort, Ill.

Office Hours Daily

LIVE IN MOKENA

Good Schools and Churches, Excellent Railroad Service, Convenient to Chicago and Joliet.

I have a number of homes for sale at reasonable prices, including one fine little poultry farm of five acres within two blocks of the station. Fine level land, all tiled and fenced, and a complete set of good buildings. If interested, send for full particulars.

GEO. J. HACKER
MOKENA, ILLINOIS

Hog Oiler

Just what the hog needs in the hot summer days. Works automatically and oils the hog completely. Be sure to look at this oiler before buying elsewhere, as our price is right.

Our Price, $16

Feeding Trough

We have a heavy galvanized trough made with braces. There are no rivets to give way, so it cannot leak. Instead of rivets it has double seams. We have them in four sizes.

2-ft $1.85; 4-ft $3.00; 6-ft 4.00; 8-ft $4.75

B. Balchowsky & Sons

GOOD GOODS ALWAYS

FRANKFORT.

ILLINOIS

Pure Patchoid
Has Come to Town!
When You Learn
All It Means To
You And Your Car
You'll Say
Welcome to Our City
While
You May Have Punctures
They Will Be Rendered Harmless
And You Will Save
Tires | Time
Tubes | Toil
Trouble | Temper
When Your Tires Are Treated With Patchoid
At

HENTSCH & HELLMUTH
Mokena, Ill.

We have installed a first-class

Tire and Vulcanizing Station

Don't throw away your old tires. We can give you

2,000 to 3,000

more miles from them
No matter how old they are

BRING THEM IN

SHURE-RIGHT GARAGE

Tinley Park,

Illinois

The Keuch Meat Market

Opens for Business Monday, July 19, 1920

This will be an up to date market, and you can have your choice in a good line of Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats, Sausages of all kinds, lard, etc. Will also carry a select line of fruit in season. All prices reasonable, and courteous service to all.

Free Delivery Service

Will deliver meats or fruits anywhere on farms and surrounding towns by auto. Farmers during Threshing time will find that we can make prompt deliveries of meat orders anywhere in this section.

Highest Market Price Paid for Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Veal, Etc.

ADAM KEUCH

Foster Building
South of Railroad

Tinley Park, Ill.

REMEMBER THE SIGN

When you need new batteries. The sign of quality

Tinley Park Machine Shop and Garage

FORD

The Universal Car

March 3, 1920, the Ford Motor Co. advanced the price of Ford cars because of the increased cost of production. No specific announcement was deemed necessary at the time, but it has developed that misrepresentations and misquotations of these advanced prices have been and are being given out. So to safeguard the public against the evils of misrepresentation, we herewith give the present prices:

Runabout, $550; with dual electric starting and lighting system	$625
Touring Car, $575; with dual electric starting and lighting system	$650
Coupe, $750; with dual electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims	$850
Sedan, $875; with dual electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims	$975
Truck Chasis with solid tires and clincher rims	$600
with pneumatic tires and durable rims, $640

These prices are all f. o. b. Detroit.

Fordson Tractor $850 f. o. b. Dearborn, Mich.

We will be pleased to receive your order, pledging the assurance of the best possible promptness in delivery.

COOPER & HOSTERT

Mokena, - Illinois

FARMS FOR SALE

In Frankfort Township, Ill.

20 acres, 90 acres, 115 acres

ALL IMPROVED

ONA E. MCGOVNEY, Mokena, Ill.

WATKINS MEDICINE CO.

Noted for the past 52 years as manufacturers of Medicines and Extracts, have opened an agency here with headquarters at Hentsch & Hellmuth's Garage.

CHAS. DeBELL, Agent

Mokena, Illinois

For Sale

One 2 Ton Republic truck with stake body and stock rack. Truck in A-1 condition. For further information, address

E. A. MOSS, TINLEY PARK, ILL. or call Tinley Park 38-M1.

Bruised Knuckles Banished!
—and soiled hands eliminated! No blackening ever necessary when you beautify your kitchen—and simplify your cooking—with a Universal Blue Beauty Brilliant.

In the opinion of the public the most beautiful-cooking range in America.

The Blue Beauty is just as good to use as to look at, too! That's the "beauty" of it. Reliable—easy to operate and in economy it leads them all.

The Porcelain Enameled and durably enameled all over—wiped clean in a jiffy—overlastingly rust-proof—sanitary always. A NEW range born of 40 years' experience—and one you want to see before they are all sold out.

See It Soon—It's Here!

For Sale By

J. C. FUNK, Tinley Park, Illinois

Why Brunswick Tires Win Preference

There are two main reasons—one, the name itself, which certifies superfine value—the other, that time tells the same story.

Thus reputation and performance unite in giving you all you expect—and more.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires. Many motorists would pay more readily, but the Brunswick idea is to GIVE the utmost, rather than to GET the utmost. And this has been true since 1845. You can appreciate what Brunswick Standards mean by trying ONE Brunswick Tire. It will be a revelation. You'll agree that you could not buy a better, regardless of price.

And, like other motorists, you'll decide to have ALL Brunswicks. Then you'll know supreme satisfaction from your tires—longer life, minimum trouble, lower cost.

THE BRUNSWICK-BALKE-COLLENDER CO.
623 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Sold On An Unlimited Mileage Guarantee Basis

ALEX WAGNER

ORLAND, ILLINOIS

"THE BROTHER OF PROMETHEUS"

Onorio Ruotolo, the Italian-American sculptor of New York city, thus crystallizes in marble the spirit and energy of Thomas Alva Edison, who was seventy-three years old on February 11. Ruotolo recently completed this study, which he calls "The Brother of Prometheus."

Woods That Resist Decay.

The use of woods in airplanes has caused experiments to be made regarding the resistance to decay of various woods. Spruce, which has been extensively used in airplane construction, is not particularly durable. Port Oxford cedar, Southern cypress and California redwood are very resistant to decay.

Lessening the Trouble.

"These are the smallest sandwiches I ever saw for the money," complained a tourist in a seaside restaurant. "Yes," replied the waitress. "There was so much complaint of the quality of them that I thought I would make them smaller, so that there would not be so much to grumble about."

Japan Taught by China.

The arts of printing and writing were introduced into Japan from China in the year 284. In 673 the Emperor Temmu directed the publication of the first Japanese books, "Kojiki," or Ancient Legends.

They Gussed It.

When the band played "How Dry I Am" at the league ball park at Portland, Ore., three Japanese fans stood in their box with hats raised, thinking it the national anthem.

The Age of Death.

One quarter of the people on the earth die before the age of six, one-half before the age of sixteen and only about one person of each 100 born lives to the age of sixty-five.

70 Degrees at Breakfast Time!

Five warm rooms to dress in, a comfortable kitchen and a cheerfully warm dining room on the coldest mornings help to start the day right. All this comfort is yours this winter if you install an

INTERNATIONAL ONEPIPE HEATER

Through one pipe and one register it delivers clean, healthful moist heat to every room—upstairs and down. It can be installed in a few hours.

Costs little more than one good sized parlor stove, but gives more heat than several. Rids your home of the work, dirt and danger of caring for stoves.

Put in on a 60-day trial and guaranteed for five years.

Let us show you this remarkable Onepipe Heater.

J. G. OSWALD

Mokena, Illinois

LADY LARKSPUR

by MEREDITH NICOLSON

COPYRIGHT BY CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

TWO RUNAWAYS.

Synopsis.—Richard Searies, successful American playwright, confides to his friend, Bob Singleton, the fact that, inspired by the genius of a young actress whom he had seen in London, he has written a play, "Lady Larkspur," and that he has contracted a marriage a short time before his death, while on a visit to Japan. He left Singleton a comparatively small amount of money and the privilege of a residence in the "garage" of his summer home, Barton-on-the-Sound, Connecticut. Mrs. Bashford is believed to be traveling in the Orient. The household at Barton is made up of broken-down employees of a New York hotel, where Bashford made his home. Singleton goes to Barton, taking with him the manuscript of "Lady Larkspur." There he finds the household strangely upset, some of its members being suspected by their comrades of pro-Germanism. Antoine, head of the establishment, informs him that he has been perplexed by the somewhat mysterious visits of a stranger, apparently a foreigner, seeking Mrs. Bashford. Antoine has formed the male members of the household into a guard for protection. Singleton reads "Lady Larkspur" with approval. "Aunt Alice" arrives unexpectedly, meets with a lively reception and turns out to be young and charming. Mrs. Farnsworth is her traveling companion. Torrence, Bashford's lawyer, suspects the two women and warns Singleton "Aunt Alice" may be an impostor. The mysterious stranger, Count Montani, makes a call and is seen to be very much interested in "Aunt Alice's" ostrich-plume fan, which had been repaired by a jeweler in Japan. Singleton is fascinated by "Aunt Alice." Antoine reports that a "spy" has been tempting a woman servant to steal the fan! The "spy" is captured at night by the guard.

CHAPTER III—Continued.

"Get some dry clothes for this man and lock him up in the toolhouse. Be sure he has blankets, and you'd better give him some hot coffee."

The captive manifested relief at my decision and broke his silence to thank me, which he did in very good English. His submissiveness only deepened my perplexity, but I couldn't help laughing as he walked away surrounded by the "troops," with Dutch leading the way—Dutch fully conscious that he had vindicated himself and disposed to be rather disdainful of his comrades.

I hurried to the house, where I found Alice and Mrs. Farnsworth ministering to Elsie, who had been taken there by their order. Elsie, sharing with Dutch the honors of the night, lay on a davenport, where she had received first aid. Alice rose from her knees as I entered, gathering up strips of bandages, and turned to me laughing.

"Elsie's injuries are not serious; only disagreeable bruises in the face. There will be no scars, I'm sure. We'll keep her at the house for a few days until she's quite fit again. Surely any one who has questioned Elsie's loyalty ought to be satisfied now."

"You certainly manifested it very cleverly, Elsie. We're all very grateful."

Elsie, her face covered with bandages, acknowledged my thanks by wiggling her foot.

Mrs. Farnsworth said she would put Elsie to bed. Now, I thought, Alice would make some sign if she knew anything that would explain Montani and the prisoner in the toolhouse. But the whole affair only moved her to laughter and she seemed less a grown woman than ever in her white robe. My efforts to impress her with the seriousness of the attempt to secure the fan only added to her delight.

"How droll! How very droll! You couldn't possibly have arranged anything that would please me more! It's delicious! As you say in America, it's perfectly killing!"

I suggested that the holding of a prisoner without process of law might present embarrassments.

"I know," she cried, clapping her hands joyfully. "You mean we are likely to bump into dear old habeas corpus! The sheriff will come and read a solemn paper to you and you will have to hie you to court and produce the body of the prisoner. That will be splendid!"

"It won't be so funny if—"

"Constance and I so love the unusual—and it is so hard to find!" she continued. "And yet from the moment I reached the gates of these premises things have happened! Nothing is omitted! Strange visitors; fierce attacks upon our guards, and still the mystery depends in the wee sma' hours, with heroes and heroines at every turn! To think that that absurd little Dutch was asleep in the garden and really captured the spy or whatever he is! But you are a hero, too! You shall be decorated!"

She walked to a stand and pondered a moment before a vase of roses, chose a long-stemmed red one and struck me lightly across the shoulder with it.

"Arise, sir knight! You should have knelt, but to kneel in skirts requires practice; you could hardly have managed in that monk's robe."

I couldn't be sure whether she was mocking me or whether there was really liking under this nonsense. I was beyond the point of being impatient with her. I was helpless in her hands; she would do with me as she willed, and it was my business to laugh with her, to meet her as best I could in the realm of folly.

"You must go!" she exclaimed suddenly. "Constance will be calling down the stairs for me in a moment."

"Tomorrow—" I began. The wistful look she had at times came into her eyes as she stood in the center of the room, playing with the flower.

"Tomorrow," she repeated, "and then—tomorrow!"

"There must be endless tomorrows for you and me," I said, and took the flower from her hand. The reverend died in her eyes, and they were awake with reproach and dismissal. At the door I looked back. She hadn't moved and she said, very quietly, but smiling a little: "Nothing must happen to make me sorry I came. Please remember!"

CHAPTER IV.

Pursuing Knights.

I didn't sleep until near daybreak, and was aroused at nine o'clock by Flynn, who appeared at the door in his chauffeur's togs, carrying a tray.

"The wife didn't come back, sorr, but I made coffee and toast. Sorry to waken you, but I'm takin' the new car into the city."

I sat up and rubbed my eyes. "Who's going to the city?" I demanded.

"The ladies is goin' at once, sorr. They sent orders an hour ago to be ready with the new machine. I'm late and you'll have to excuse me, sorr."

"I'm Late and You'll Have to Excuse Me, Sorr."

I sprang out of bed and piled him with questions, most of which he was unable to answer. I did, however, extract from him the information that nothing had occurred after I retired for the night that could have alarmed the women at the residence and prompted this abrupt departure. There was no reason why Alice shouldn't run to town if it pleased her to do so, and yet it was odd that she hadn't mentioned the matter. Flynn hurried away, and from the window I followed the car's course to the house, and a moment later caught a glimpse of it on its way to the gates.

I called from the window to one of the gardeners who knew how to manage a machine and told him to be ready to drive me to the village in half an hour. There was an express at ten-forty, and by taking it I would at least have the satisfaction of being somewhere in New York when the runaways arrived. Antoine packed my suitcase; I am not sure that he didn't shed tears on my belongings. The old fellow was awed into silence by the rapidity with which history had been made in the past twenty-four hours, and clearly was not pleased by my desertion.

We drove past the tool-house, where I found the prisoner seated on a wheelbarrow smoking a cigarette. He was no more communicative than when I had questioned him after his capture. He smiled in a bored fashion when I asked if he wanted anything, and said he would be obliged for cigarettes and reading matter. He volunteered nothing as to his identity, and the guards said that a thorough search of the captive's clothing had disclosed nothing incriminating. He had three hundred dollars in currency (this was to cover Elsie's bribe money, I conjectured), a handkerchief, a cigarette case, and a box of matches. I directed that he be well fed and given all the reading matter he wanted, and hurried on to catch my train.

I took a room at the Thackeray club and pondered carefully whether, in spite of my misgivings, I hadn't better see Torrence and tell him all that had happened since his call on Mrs. Bashford. If there was any chance of doing the wrong thing in any matter not prescribed in the laws governing the administration of estates, he would be sure to do it; but I was far from satisfied with the results of my own management of affairs at Barton. I finally called up the trust company and learned that Torrence was in Albany attending the trial of a will case and might not be in town for a couple of days. His secretary said he had instructions to wire my daily report to Albany. I told him there had been no developments at Barton, and went out and walked. Inquiries at hotels large and small occupied me until seven o'clock. No one had heard of a Mrs. Bashford or a Mrs. Farnsworth. My inspection of the occupants of several thousand automobiles proved equally fruitless. I ate a lonely dinner at the club and resumed my search. Hanging about theater doors, staring at the crowd, is not a dignified occupation, and by nine o'clock, having seen the most belated theatergoers vanish, I was tired and footsore. The flaming sign of Searies' "Who Killed Cock Robin" over the door of the "As You Like It" caught my eye. I sought a seat—the last in the rack—and squeezed into my place in the middle of the last row. As I had seen the piece at least a dozen times, its novelty was gone for me, but the laughter of the delighted audience was cheering. The first act was reaching its culmination, and I watched it with a glow of pride in Searies and his skillful craftsmanship.

As the curtain fell and the lights went up amid murmurs of pleasure and expectancy, I glanced across the rows of heads. The half-fronted face of a man three rows in front of me suddenly caught my attention. There was something curiously familiar in his outlines and the gesture with which, at the moment, he was drawing his handkerchief across his forehead. It was Montani—beyond any question Montani—and I instinctively shrank in my seat and lifted my program as he turned round and swiftly surveyed the rows behind him.

I watched his black head intently until I remembered the superstition that by staring at a person in a public place you can make him look at you. Montani knew a great many things I wanted to know, but I must have time to adjust myself to the shock of his propinquity.

The house now took note of a stirring in the boxes. There was an excited buzz as the tall form and unmistakable features of Cecil Arrow-smith, the English actor, were recognized. I had read that day of his arrival in New York. With him were two women. My breath came hard and I clutched the iron frame of the seat in front of me so violently that its occupant turned and glared.

The trio settled into their places quickly, but not before I had satisfied myself that Arrow-smith's companions were Alice and Mrs. Farnsworth. As they fell into animated talk I saw that Alice was in her gayest humor. The distinguished tragedian seemed greatly amused by what she was saying to him.

"Must be members of Arrow-smith's company," one of my neighbors remarked. "They open in two weeks in Shakespearian repertoire."

Montani had half risen, the better to focus an opera-glass on the box. The gong solemnly announced the second act, and Alice moved her chair to face the stage. Once more Montani scanned the party with his glass. As the lights faded Alice, with the pretty languorous gesture I so well remembered, opened her fan—the fan of ostrich plumes, that became a blur of white that held my eye through the dusk after the curtain rose.

Alice, Montani, and the fan! To this combination I had now to add the new element introduced into the situation by the apparent familiar acquaintance of Alice and Mrs. Farnsworth with Cecil Arrow-smith. And yet, as the play proceeded on its swift-moving course, I reasoned that there was nothing extraordinary in their knowing the eminent actor. He had long been a personage in England and had lately been knighted. Their appearance with him at the theater really disposed of the idea that they might be impostors. The presence of Arrow-smith had put zest into the company, and I hadn't seen a better performance of Searies' play. The trio in the box joined in the prolonged applause at the end of the act.

Singleton finds "Aunt Alice" in New York and the mystery deepens.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Dubious Compliment.

"I saw Mrs. Cad on the street to-day," cried Mabel angrily, "and the horrid old snob refused to speak to me, just because she was with Mrs. Millions."

"How absurd!" cried Julia, sympathetically. "Just as if you were not her equal. Why, she's just a conceited idiot!"

REDUCE COST OF MANY GARMENTS

Bulletin Teaches Methods of Preserving Life of Various Pieces of Wearing Apparel.

CLEANLINESS IS AID

Eliminate Necessity of Spending Large Sums to Replace Wardrobe by Giving Immediate Attention to Rips and Tears.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Men as well as women can help reduce the high cost of clothing. A little care on the part of the wearer will do much to preserve clothing already on hand, and thus eliminate the necessity of spending large sums frequently to replenish the wardrobe. This is brought out in a recent publication of the United States department of agriculture, Farmers' Bulletin 1089, Selection and Care of Clothing.

Immediate attention to rips, sewing on loosened buttons and hooks, reworking worn buttonholes, and "preventive" darning are recommended as means of prolonging the life of a garment. The latter repair measure consists of reinforcing a worn place with rows of fine stitches or by laying a piece of cloth under it and darning it down with raveling of the material. The heels and toes of stockings and socks especially may be treated this way before a hole is entirely worn through. Shortening sleeves or trousers a little to do away with a worn edge, or putting new cuffs and collar or new trimming on a dress may often add months to the life of a garment.

To keep clothing looking "as good as new" as well as actually preserving and lengthening its life, it is necessary to keep it clean. Brushing with a stiff brush for woolen clothing and with a softer brush for velvet or silk, is necessary to remove dust, and spots and stains should be carefully treated with cleaning preparations as soon as possible. In most cases this can be done at home, but it is more economical to have professional cleaners handle very delicate garments. Farmers' Bulletin 861 gives detailed information on the removal of stains from different kinds of textiles.

Pressing Preserves Garments.

Preserving the shape of a garment lengthens its service. Almost anyone can learn to press clothing neatly. Woolen clothing should be covered with a thoroughly dampened cloth and pressed with a moderately hot iron until nearly dry. If the cloth becomes absolutely dry, shine is likely to appear on the garment. Silk garments should be pressed very carefully; in fact, sometimes hanging a silk dress over a tub of steaming water will remove wrinkles without actual ironing.

Spots and Stains in Clothing Can Be Removed at Home.

Washable white silk garments should be washed and rinsed in lukewarm water, wrapped in a towel, and pressed with a warm, not hot, iron. Handled in this way they will not turn yellow.

Shoes, more than many other articles of clothing, need to be thoroughly aired after wearing, to prevent perspiration from rotting the lining. Keeping shoes on shoe trees or stuffed with paper when not in use preserves their original shape, and is especially necessary if the shoes have become wet. Intense heat is likely to crack leather; therefore wet shoes should never be dried under the stove or on a register or radiator.

Cleaning Hats and Gloves.

A hat that is worn day after day needs special care to keep it looking neat. Careful brushing or, in the case of straw hats, wiping with a cloth dipped in denatured alcohol will remove dust and freshen it. A new band on a man's hat may postpone the necessity of buying a new hat for months. Trimmings on women's hats that become loosened by wind or wear should be sewed into place as follows: Thread a long needle with coarse thread or silk of an inconspicuous color. Draw the needle from the wrong side through the hat beside the loosened trimming, leaving 2 or 3 inches of thread on the wrong side; pass the needle up and down around the trimming and back to the wrong side of the hat; pull the thread through, tie the two ends securely and cut them a quarter of an inch beyond the knot.

One method of cleaning kid gloves is to rub the soiled parts with cornmeal, moistened with enough gasoline to keep the meal from scratching the gloves, then dry thoroughly in the air. The bulletin mentioned treats also of ways of economizing in the selection of clothing, how to test textile goods, and gives other suggestions of value.

DO NOT THROW AWAY PARTLY STALE BREAD

Different Ways of Making It Quite Appetizing.

Good Plan to Cut Off What Is Needed at Meal and Place Slices in Hot Oven—Croutons Are Made of Odds and Ends.

Toasting is the most common method for making stale or partly stale bread attractive, but it is by no means the only one. If partly stale bread is put into a very hot oven for a few minutes it grows softer, probably because the heat tends to drive the water from the crust back into the crumb, food specialists of the United States department of agriculture say. Such warmed-over bread is not as soft and springy as fresh, but most persons find it very appetizing. A good plan, therefore, when bread has lost its freshness, is to cut off what will be needed at a meal and place the slices in a hot oven for a few minutes just before serving. In this way bread can be used on the table which would ordinarily be considered too stale.

"Twice-baked bread," which is cut bread placed in the warming-oven or in a pan on the back of the stove and allowed to dry out slowly until it is slightly brown and crisp throughout, offers still another way of making stale bread attractive. If desired, this twice-baked bread may be crushed with a rolling-pin and used like the ready-to-eat breakfast cereals. In some localities this dish has long been known under the name of rusks.

The little fried cubes of bread called croutons, which are served with soup, may be made of odds and ends of bread. To save time, bread simply broken into small pieces may be fried either in deep fat or in a pan (sauteed) and used for the same purpose. Sometimes bread crumbs fried in a pan are used as a seasoning or sauce for meat. French cooks frequently put pieces of stale bread in soups just long enough before serving for them to soften; the well-known one, "crust in the pot," (crouste au pot), is simply a thin soup with bread in it.

There are many ways of using stale bread in cooking. Almost every good cookbook gives directions for preparing soft and dry crumbs for use in scalloped dishes, bread puddings, etc. The soft parts of bread may be used in place of flour or cornstarch for thickening soups, sauces, gravies, stewed tomatoes (either fresh or canned), etc. Bakers often use stale bread and dried, finely ground cake in place of part of the flour in making fancy breads, cakes and cookies. The housekeeper can often avoid waste by using them in this way in griddlecakes, cakes, cookies, etc.

MOPS FOR POLISHED FLOORS

One May Be Made of Old Stockings or Any Discarded Woolen or Flannelette Material.

For oiled or polished floors an oiled floor mop is almost a necessity. Several makes can be found on the market, or one may be made of old stockings or any discarded woolen or flannelette material. In a Farmers' Bulletin on "Farm Home Conveniences," obtainable free from the United States department of agriculture, the following directions for making such a mop are given:

The material is cut into 1-inch wide strips, which are sewed across the middle to a foundation of heavy cloth. This is fastened to an old broom handle or used in a clamp mop handle.

The mop, when finished, is dipped into a solution made of one-half cupful of melted paraffin and one cupful of kerosene, and then allowed to dry. To keep it moist it is rolled tightly and kept in a paper bag away from stoves or lamps.

CHEMICAL EFFECTS OF FOOD

It May Be Literally True That "One Man's Meat Is Another Man's Poison"—People Differ.

Different persons are differently constituted with respect to the chemical changes which their food undergoes and the effect produced, so that it may be literally true that "one man's meat is another man's poison." Every man must learn from his own experience what food agrees with him and what does not.—United States department of agriculture.

Keep large paper bag in the kitchen for rags.

Minced walnuts may be added to salmon salad.

Cakes to be eaten while fresh require little fat.

Apricot taploca can be made exactly as peach taploca is.

Grated lemon peel adds a delicious flavor to baked apples.

A few bread crumbs added to scrambled eggs improve them.

Wet the cut end of ham with vinegar to keep from moulding.

NOW FREE FROM PAIN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Frees Another Woman From Suffering.

Bayonne, N. J.—"Before I was married I suffered a great deal with periodical pains. I had pains in my side and back and also headaches, and got so weak I could not do anything. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt better. Now I am married and have two little boys. Before the first one came I was weak and nervous, could not eat and was dizzy. After I took the Vegetable Compound I could work and eat. Now I am strong and recommend your medicine to my friends."—Mrs. ANNA SLEVA, 25 East 17th Street, Bayonne, N. J.

Women who recover their health, naturally tell others what helped them. Some write and allow their names and photographs to be published with testimonials. Many more tell their friends.

If you need a medicine for women's ailments, try that well known and successful remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) for anything you need to know about these troubles.

First in America

TRINER'S

American Elixir

or Bitter Wine

Brought to the American market 30 years ago as the first Bitter Wine. It is still first and second to none. Unsurpassed for poor appetite, headaches, constipation, flatulence and other stomach troubles.

At all drug stores and dealers in medicines.

JOSEPH TRINER COMPANY

1333-45 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Gold Medal Grand Prix

San Francisco 1915 Panama 1915

NOTION PICTURE PRODUCTION PAYS BIG REFERENCE. Invest $10.00, receive dividend of $50.00 within one year. Write for free booklet, Box 457 Oklahoma City, Okla.

Siberian Exports Ready.

According to a dispatch from Omsk, Siberia, a committee has been formed to prepare energetically for the opening of navigation in the Obi and Yenisei basins. Raw materials valued at $75,000,000 are being concentrated for export, comprising 2,500,000 squirrel pelts, 500,000 pieces of various furs, 300,000 pounds of various bristles, 2,700 tons of wool, 2,700 tons of flax, besides linseed oil, linseed and other raw materials. The first portion is estimated at 10,000 tons and efforts will be made to increase the second and third.

Cuticura Soothes Itching Scalp.

On retiring gently rub spots of dandruff and itching with Cuticura Ointment. Next morning shampoo with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Make them your every-day toilet preparations and have a clear skin and soft, white hands.—Adv.

Up to Her Old Tricks.

Skeptical Widower—May, is it really you?

Spirit of Dead Wife—Yes, dear; you don't doubt me, do you?

(Whereupon the excited man puts his lighted cigarette in his pocket where the matches are. A strong sulphurous smell invades the room. Violent heat in the region of his pocket.)

Widower—It's you, all right, Mary, but you've got your hand in the wrong pocket. My money's in my overcoat.—Yale Record.

Things Apart.

My little niece was studying her geography and asked me to bound the state of Nevada. Her grandmother looked up and said: "I am surprised that a little girl that has traveled as much as you have must ask any one to help them with their lessons."

Caroline said: "Grandma, when I travel, I travel for joy and not 'jography.'"—Exchange.

Use MURINE Night and Morning

Keep Your Eyes Clean, Clear and Healthy

Write for Free Eye Care Book Murine Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Write for Free Eye Care Book Murine Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Sure Relief

MAN'S BEST AGE

A man is as old as his organs; he can be as vigorous and healthy at 70 as at 35 if he aids his organs in performing their functions. Keep your vital organs healthy with

GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES

The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles since 1896; corrects disorders; stimulates vital organs. All druggists, three sizes. Look for the name Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation.

Cuticura Soap SHAVES Without Mug

Cuticura Soap is the favorite for safety razor shaving. Kill All Flies! THEY SPREAD DISEASE. Placed anywhere, DAISY FLY KILLER attracts and kills all flies. Next to clean, convenient and cheap. Lasts all season. Made of metal, can't pull or tip over. Will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed. DAISY FLY KILLER at your dealer or by EXPRESS, prepaid, $1.25. HAROLD SOMERS, 100 De La Salle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Nature's Remedy

Better than Pills For Liver Ills. NR Tonight - Tomorrow Alright

NEW CHEMICAL KILLS BED BUGS P. D. Q.

P. D. Q. (Pestky Devils Quietus) is the name of a new golden colored chemical discovery by Dr. Price that actually kills the worst infested house of bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants and their eggs. They don't have time to kick after you go after them with P. D. Q. A 25c package of P. D. Q. makes a quart of strong bug-killer, and goes farther than a barrel of the old fashioned dangerous dope. P. D. Q. coats and kills their eggs and prevents hatching. FREE a patent spout in every box to enable you to get them in the hard-to-get-at places, and saves juice. Your druggist has it or he can get it for you, or sent prepaid on receipt of price by the Owl Chemical Works, Terre Haute, Indiana.

540 ACRES. Good Southeast Missouri corn, wheat, clover and alfalfa farm. Real bargain at $55.00 per acre. Agents wanted. Union Farm Land Co., Poplar Bluff, Mo.

W. N. U., CHICAGO, NO. 30-1920.

Natural Science Note.

Perceval was enjoying a Sunday ride, and as he had only recently learned the names and characteristics of a few trees, he observed closely all the trees he passed. A peach tree in blossom caught his eye, next a honey locust with its many thorns, and then suddenly he straightened up and stared with astonished eyes at a gigantic tree trunk whose entire top was missing. "Oh, mother, see," he cried excitedly, "there's a tree with no head on its neck."

Town's Proud Boast.

This town has a young man who pawned his watch to obtain money for a bath. We contend that this is a claim to distinction possessed by no other town on earth.—Shawnee Register.

ECZEMA!

THIS isn't one of those fake free treatment offers you have seen so many times. We don't offer to give you something for nothing—but we do guarantee that you can try this wonderful treatment, entirely at our risk, and this guarantee is backed by your local druggist.

This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon, because the druggist with whom you have been trading would not stand behind the guarantee if he did not know it to be an honest and legitimate one.

Hunt's Salve, formerly called Hunt's Cure, has been sold under absolute money back guarantee for more than thirty years. It is especially compounded for the treatment of Eczema, Itch, Ring Worm, Tetter, and other itching skin diseases.

Thousands of letters testify to its curative properties. M. Timerlin, a reputable dry goods dealer in Durant, Oklahoma, says: "I suffered with Eczema for ten years, and spent $1,000.00 for doctors' treatments, without result. One box of Hunt's Cure entirely cured me."

Don't fail to give Hunt's Salve a trial—price 75 cents, from your local druggist, or direct by mail if he does not handle it.

A. B. RICHARDS MEDICINE CO., Sherman, Texas

SAY "DIAMOND DYES" Don't streak or ruin your material in a poor dye. Insist on "Diamond Dyes." Easy directions in package.

"FREEZONE"

Lift Off Corns! No Pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Hard to Believe. A workman in a factory on the West side received a bad cut on the face. Before they could get him to the doctor's office he fainted. The first thing the doctor did was to pour a large drink of bottled-in-bond down him. The doctor then dressed his wound and the man went his way. But in about a half hour the man was back at the office with his wife, and as he came in he said: "She won't believe me." "Won't believe what?" exclaimed the doctor.

With that the wife cried out: "I've lived with this man too long not to know when he's drunk and been fighting!"—Indianapolis News.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" is genuine Aspirin proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for over twenty years. Accept only an unbroken "Bayer package" which contains proper directions to relieve Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Colds and Pain. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer packages." Aspirin is trade mark Bayer Manufacture Monoceticacidester of Salicylicacid.—Adv.

Lemon Pies. Frances had heard her mother tell repeatedly of her fondness for lemon pies, and then about the day when she ate too much of the dainty and could never be persuaded to taste one again. Frances has reached the age, in the teens, when the boys are beginning to show her attention.

The other day her mother happened to be in the room when one of her swains called her over the phone. From the one-sided conversation, the mother gathered that Frances was inventing excuse after excuse not to see him or have him call.

When the receiver was hung up her mother said: "What makes you treat Joe that way?" "Oh, well," said the young woman, "it's just another case of lemon pie."—Indianapolis News.

Some Look as If They Had. Wonderful how a girl who wears a georgette blouse, a veil, a hair net and perforated hose keeps from getting all tangled up in the meshes?—Toledo Blade.

Why Price the Fool? Kansas Paper—The Ladies' Aid will hold another fool sale on Tuesday.—Boston Transcript.

SCRAPS OF HUMOR

TRUE ELOQUENCE.

"That was a great speech your lawyer made when he got you acquitted." "So it was," said the confidence man. "It was the most eloquent oration I ever heard. Why, my lawyer not only convinced the jury that I was an innocent and much abused man, but there were times when I almost believed it myself."

A Belief. "I hope Bliggins has to make speeches on behalf of some candidate next summer," remarked the man who can be disagreeable. "Think it'll help the candidate?" "Not much. But it'll compel Bliggins to talk about somebody besides himself."

All Fixed. "Gabe, I hear you are about to commit matrimony. Got your house furnished yet?"

"Yep, got a pair of deer antlers for a rifle rack. And when my seven coon dogs are home the place looks as cozy as a picture."

Always a Way. "My husband won't buy me a jeweled dog collar." "There's a way to get it." "Huh?" "Keep growling."

Always Happens. "Sometimes I bring my lunch with me." "Well?" "Those are the days you get invited out."

COMPLIMENT FOR COMPLIMENT.

She—Alas, we never see men like those the novelist describes. He—Alas, no—nor girls like those the illustrators draw.

Economic Delusion. Buying apples by the barrel. Is one way man's peace is wrecked—First he picks and eats the specked ones; By that time the rest are specked.

Maybe. "The cherry tree was once revered." "And is yet, I trust. What you driving at?" "Maybe in these days we pay too much attention to the plum tree."

Depends on Value. "How would you class the deferred payment for a navy?" "I suppose, according to the kind of a navy, it would be either a sinking fund or a floating debt."

An Injudicious Inquiry. Benson—I sold my first poem when I was only sixteen, and I have been writing ever since. Binks—And have you ever sold another?—London Answers.

A Painful Operation. "Did you hear our friend Jones had been superseded?" "You don't say so! Did they give him an anesthetic?"

True. "You take life too seriously." "I like to be careful." "Well, a man can be careful without being full of care."

All Off. "I thought Belle's marriage was coming off this month." "It was, but her engagement came off last month."

Literal Description. "What is the mean power of this engine?" "You've said it. It is about as mean a power as they make 'em."

Water on Two Sides. Yeast—I see some one has suggested stocking a boat and having a floating saloon on the river to get over the bone dry law.

Crimsonbeak—Well, that certainly would give us an opportunity of having a little water on the side.

Merely a Suggestion. Bridget—Do come and look at the beautiful sunset out ay the kitchen window, ma'am.

Mistress—That's nothing, Bridget. You ought to see it rise some morning.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY

NOT MUCH VARIATION HERE

Old Resident Entirely Truthful When He Called the Town's Death Rate "Wonderful Steady."

Wear after 12 months' hard work the pretty typist sought solitude among the healthy hills of Haleheart. The advertisements had attracted her, Haleheart was described as the best, prettiest, finest, and everything-elsest spot in the world.

"Tell me," she said on her first day, when she met a staunch old relic of the district, "what is the death rate in Haleheart?"

The local walking advertisement nodded his head reassuringly. "Wonderful steady, ma'am—wonderful steady," he replied. "One death to each person."—London Tit-Bits.

Woman's Heartlessness. "I hear tell that Gabe Gawkey is figuring on getting a divorce from his wife," said a neighbor. "What's the matter with her, anyhow?" "She's plumb heartless!" replied Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge. "He talked about some spring medicine and she up and told him that the best kind to suit his case was a buck-saw and an axe. That there infernal lady ain't got no more feelings than a snapping turtle!"—Kansas City Star.

Hobbies. "Our friend has expressed himself too emphatically on one or two subjects to have a chance at a candidacy." "Yes," commented Senator Sorghum. "He isn't even a dark horse. He's a hobby horse."

The Spell of Melody. "Give me the man who sings at his work!" said the idealist. "Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "It's all right for a man to sing at his work, unless he insists on singing himself to sleep."

Men do not hold women dear who cheapen themselves.

Religions of the World.

According to reliable statistics and carefully-made estimates the adherents of the leading Christian religions number: Roman Catholics, 272,800,000; Greek or Orthodox Catholics, 120,000; Protestants, 171,650,000; making a total of 564,510,000 Christians. The leading non-Christian bodies number: Confucianists, 300,830,000; Mohammedans, 221,825,000; Hindus, 210,540,000; Animists, 158,270,000; Buddhists, 138,031,000; Shintoists, 25,000,000. If to these be added Jews and the unclassified, the total non-Christians number 1,081,981,000, who with the Christians make a world's population of 1,646,491,000.

Honor to Whom It Is Due.

The army mule has been cited officially for helping to win the war. By the time wheelbarrows, picks and shovels, barbed wire and a few other invaluable odds and ends have been duly praised, the ecomiums will all have been passed around. About everything animate which took part in the conflict except the lowly "cootie" has been recognized.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Ugly Cut.

Customer—I see that the barber across the street has slashed his prices. Barber—Yea, and if he'd only confine his slashing to prices his customers wouldn't holler.

Pretense Called For. Edward had come to spend the time with Betty while his mother went to the club. She stayed so long they were tired of playthings and of each other. So finally in despair Betty said, "Well, Edward, let's just play we are having a good time."

Capital Punishment. How can you remove the letter "A" from the alphabet? By "B"-heading it.—Boys' Life.

A scrap of information often ends in a war of words.

Girl Seeks Forestry Post.

Miss Mildred Johnson a student, at Oregon Agricultural college, is so far as the records show the first woman to make application for civil service examination for the position of grazing assistant in the United States forest service. The position is one requiring practical experience in handling stock on the range.

Even More Serious.

"Did you say that campaign manager used money?" Inquired the horrified constituent.

"He did worse than that," replied Senator Sorghum. "He wasted it."

Viewpoints.

Optimist—"All things come to him who waits." Pessimist—"And they all come at once."—Life.

BRACE UP!

The man or woman with weak kidneys is half crippled. A lame, stiff back, with its constant, dull ache and sharp, shooting twinges, makes the simplest task a burden. Headaches, dizzy spells, urinary disorders and an "all worn out" feeling are daily sources of distress. Don't neglect kidney weakness and risk gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. Get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills today. They have helped people the world over.

An Iowa Case

Mrs. Bud Johnson, N. Main St., Leon, Iowa, says: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for they have done me a world of good. My back was very weak and lame and my kidneys caused me a great deal of trouble. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon relieved me of the pain in my back and strengthened my kidneys in good shape. Other members of my family have also used Doan's with good results."

Get Doan's at Any Store, 60c a Box
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOSTER-MILBURN CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM

Removes Dandruff—Stops Hair Falling—Restores Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. See and Buy at Druggists. Hiseox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N. Y.

HINDERCORNS

Removes Corns, Calluses, etc., stops all pain, ensures comfort to the feet, makes walking easy, etc. by mail or at Druggists. Hiseox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N. Y.

Acid Stomach

Makes the Body Sour

Nine Out of Ten People Suffer From It

It sends its harmful acids and gases all over the body, instead of health and strength. Day and night this ceaseless damage goes on. No matter how strong, its victim cannot long withstand the health-destroying effects of an acid stomach.

Good news for millions of sufferers. Chemists have found a sure remedy—one that takes the acid up and carries it out of the body; of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well.

Bloating, indigestion, sour, acid, gassy stomach miseries all removed. This is proven by over half a million ailing folks who have taken EATONIC with wonderful benefits. It can be obtained from any druggist, who will cheerfully refund its trifling cost if not entirely satisfactory. Everyone should enjoy its benefits. Frequently the first tablet gives relief.

HEMSTITCHING AND PICKING ATTACHMENT works on any and all machines; simple and easy to work; you can now make the nice things in your own home that you had to hire made or go without. Sure to please. Price $2.50. Gen. Novelty Company, Corpus Christi, Texas, Box 1031.

POSITIVELY REMOVED BY Dr. Barry's Freckle Ointment—Your druggist or by mail, 25c. Free trial. Dr. C. H. Barry Co., 2975 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Boil It Thoroughly

—fifteen minutes or more after boiling begins—
Long boiling brings out the full, rich flavor of

Postum Cereal

And while you enjoy your cup of this attractive table drink, remember that it contains no caffeine or other harmful substance.

"There's a Reason"

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Inc.
Battle Creek, Michigan

BIG 3 DAYS REDUCTION SALE

STARTING

SATURDAY, JULY 24TH

Closing out a lot of young men's suits $35.00 and $40.00 Values for	$23.98
Closing out a lot of boys knee pants suits, Values $15.00 up for	6.99
Closing out a lot of men's fine dress shoes $8.00 to $9.00 values for	4.95
Closing out a lot of men's work shoes, $5.00 Values for	2.95
Closing out a lot of ladies Oxfords, Values up $9.00 for	4.65
Closing out a lot of ladies Oxfords, Values up to $6.00 for	2.95
Large lot of men's dress pants on sale at	3.95
Large lot of men's work pants on sale at	1.98
Men's Heavy overalls on sale at	1.39
Men's Heavy Kaki pants on sale at	1.98
Men's Heavy Unionalls on sale at	3.49
Men's Heavy Chambray blue work shirts on sale at	1.16

Men's Heavy black sateen shirts on sale at	$1.49
Men's fine dress shirts on sale were $2.00	1.19
Men's fine silk shirts at 2.49, 3.85 and	4.59
Men's fine dress socks in all colors at	.19
Men's fine dress suspenders at 39c and	.49
Men's $1.00 neckwear at	.49
Men's $2.00 neckwear at	.95
Men's summer underwear at each	.45
Men's union suits at	.89
A lot of ladies fine hose to Hose at	.19
Men's straw hats value up to $5.00, sale price	1.49

Big Reduction on any article in our store

The Old Reliable

SAM BERGER & SON

208-210 E. Jefferson St., Joliet, Ill.

Any article bought at our store and not satisfactory, we will cheerfully refund your money

AMERICAN TROOPSHIP DEKALB ON FIRE

A striking photograph of the United States troopship DeKalb, formerly the German raider Prince Eitel Friedrich, on fire in the Hudson river near Spuyten Duyvil. All of the members of the skeleton crew of 300 escaped unhurt.

TO BRING BACK OUR DEAD FROM FRANCE

Six officers and sixty civilian employees have gone to Europe in connection with the bringing back to the United States of the bodies of our soldiers killed in France. This photograph shows from left to right: Lieut. G. S. Wright of California; Capt. W. H. Robertson of South Dakota, in charge of the party, and Lieut. F. McIntosh of California.

From The

BAPTIST WELCOMER

Marley, Illinois

The Marley Brotherhood Picnic held in the Storm's Grove on July 5 was a complete success. Instead of the usual parade, stress this year was placed on the patriotic program consisting of music and an address. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hindle of Joliet entertained royally with their solos, duets and in the directing of a community sing. They are always good but were especially appreciated upon this occasion. The drill, given by six of Marley's young girls under the direction of Mrs. Randall Storm, was impressive and added much to the program. Congressman Ira C. Copley, the speaker of the day, gave a helpful address. We were glad to have this contact with one of our public men and to hear his message. Not least among the events of the day was the basket dinner carried out in good fellowship. This feature of the picnic with the meeting of friends of other days, who find themselves back in Marley, is of great value. The stand under the able administration of John Madsen and his helpers, was well patronized. Not for a long time have we seen the interest in a ball game, played by our home team against the Mokena team, as was shown in the game in the late afternoon. This kind of sport is wholesome and is always enjoyed. The other forms of amusement added to the interest of the day. Added to the rest was the splendid music furnished by the Mokena band. Despite the threatening rain the day was ideal and we left the picnic grounds with the feeling that we had had a really successful and profitable day. The committees in charge provided well for our recreation and entertainment. The attendance during the entire day perhaps exceeded that of the average picnic. The meeting of old friends brought warmth and pleasure to all. These factors made the picnic a real success. We shall always remember that the Fourth of July is not complete without a Brotherhood picnic.

A petition, asking for the establishment of a Post Office in Marley, is being circulated by our enterprising store man, Mr. H. H. Sabin. Marley needs a postoffice and should have a rural route. It is absurd to have postoffice of any community at a distance too great for easy approach during the stormy weather of the winter and spring, when it is almost impossible for the carrier to make the trips regularly, when we have a railroad station conveniently located. The people of the community are eager for the return of the post office and will greet its establishment with delight, should the powers that be see fit to grant our wishes.

The services of the Marley church have been well attended of late. We believe that there are a great many folks in the community who need the church and are benefited by its services on Sunday. There are many others who need the church just as much but who do not avail themselves of the opportunities it offers them. With a little more effort on the part of some of the latter we could easily increase our average attendance at Sunday School and church services a great deal. To do so would add wonderfully to the effectiveness of the church. Sunday School sessions begin at 10 a. m. and preaching services at 11. There are classes for all ages. The Brotherhood studies should appeal to all the men and women of the community. The studies during July are on Americanization. Certainly this is well worth our study and interest. We invite you to come and reason with us. We aim to make our hour of worship inspiring and helpful. The need of worshippers is essential to this end.

The Missionary meetings are maintaining their high standard in attendance and in program. The pastor continues his studies in the Life of Paul and added to this feature are occasional readings and music. The June meeting was held at the Fred Lauffer home with Mrs. Lauffer and Mrs. Frank Savage as hostesses. The July meeting is to be held at the Tom Cooper home with Mrs. Cooper and Miss Elizabeth Lauffer as hostesses. Preparations are under way for the bazaar to be given during the first week in November.

Quite a remarkable meeting of its kind was held at the J. R. Bowen home on June 26 when the Marley Household Science Club entertained the clubs of Will County. There were delegates present from Plainfield, Manhattan, Wilton, Frankfort, Mokena, New Lenox and Joliet. Eighty-six women were present beside several men and children who brought the number up to a hundred. The program consisted of a community sing led by Mrs. Krapp of Mokena, and an illustrated lecture by Mrs. Mustain of Chicago. Mrs. Mustain's subject was "Vitalizing Agriculture". She pleaded for a training of the farm boys and girls that would make them want to remain on the farm. This should be done thru the public schools who in turn should have teachers especially trained for this important work. Mrs. G. W. Bush, thru whose efforts this meeting was largely possible, as president of the local organization made fitting remarks. Mrs. Howard Francis, president of the Will County Club, also responded with a short address. Mrs. Randall Storm, always gladly received, read to the delight of all present. Refreshments were served in an attractive manner at the close of the program. Certainly a meeting of the representative women of the county in this way cannot help but have its influence in "vitalizing agriculture."

We are glad to welcome back to our community a former pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Finley of Tama, Iowa. Since leaving Marley Mr. Finley has been in educational work in college and high school. At present he is Superintendent of the Tama Public Schools in which school Mrs. Finley is one of the teachers. They are both in attendance at the summer session of the University of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gorham have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Earl Haley of Chicago.

With a flivver labeled "Niagra Falls", "Chicago or bust", Mr. and Mrs. George Copper and their son with his bride motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Haley for a week's visit over the Fourth.

Stanton Rowley is in the Marley community for a visit with relatives and friends.

SPECIAL ATTENTION

Is called to the special 10 per cent discount I am offering on men's and boy's shoes during the months of July and August. Take advantage of this special offer and buy your footwear now, while the price is reduced.

FRED LEPLA

Frankfort, Illinois
501

For Sale

Having moved on a small farm I have the following equipment for sale:

1 Fordson tractor nearly new, complete with pulley-top, fenders, disc and plow	$985
1 4-hole Joliet corn sheller	90
1 4-row Appleton corn husker shredder	125
1 Kelly duplex combination alfalfa and grain grinder	100
Great western manure spreader	75
Sharples No. 6 cream separator	20

W. J. FULTON, Tinley Park, Ill.

THE BOSTON STORE

JOLIET'S GREATEST ECONOMY SHOPPING CENTER

S. & H. GREEN STAMPS FREE

with every purchase of 10c or over

We Still Give "S. & H." Stamps -- A Warning

MALICIOUS reports by unscrupulous persons are in circulation from time to time that the Boston Store will discontinue the giving of their Profit-Sharing S. & H. Trading Stamps. We wish to warn our thousands of friends and patrons that these reports are utterly false, and have no foundation whatever, and are circulated with the intention of doing you and us an injury. Your S. & H. Stamps are good any time you present them in our Premium Department and we shall continue to issue and redeem them as long as we are in business in Joliet. Our Profit Sharing policy has stood the test for 31 years and will stand for the 31 years to come---a strong binding bond between this store and its patrons. When you hear these false and malicious reports come or send direct to headquarters and learn the truth about these unwarranted attacks. Visit our Premium Parlors and see the valuable Premiums given for S. & H. Trading Stamps.

Why We Give "S. & H." Trading Stamps

WE GIVE Trading Stamps as an inducement to our patrons to buy on a cash basis and take their discount the same as every wholesale house or manufacturer allows all merchants. We buy for cash and gladly allow you the discount in Stamps on all cash purchases, thus eliminating a costly system of bookkeeping and charge accounts. S. & H. Trading Stamps make you partners in this economically managed store. S. & H. Trading Stamps are Free ---Free to you for your good will and patronage. They are your share of the profits of Joliet's greatest store--growing greater each day by our policy of profit-sharing in the giving of the standard S. & H. Green Trading Stamps. Our prices are always the lowest in the city for equal quality and in addition you receive valuable S. & H. Stamps for cash trading. And please remember there is a Five Million Dollar Corporation behind S. & H. Stamps and that they are redeemable in any city of any size in the United States. We redeem S. & H. Stamps at this store.

Read the 30th Mill-End Sale Bargains on other side

More for your money and double savings at The Boston Store

30TH MILL END SALE

39c unbleached
muslin
27c

Yard-wide Unbleached Muslin; strong, firm weaves that sell regularly at 59c yard. An extra special Mill End bargain at 27c yard.

Muslin—Second Floor.

30TH MILL END SALE

Children's 25c
vest
12½c

Children's ribbed sleeveless knit vests. Soft, firm quality that will wear well; a 25c value. Special at the Mill End price of 12½c.

Vests—Second Floor.

30TH MILL END SALE

35c outing
flannel
23c yd

Soft, reversible flannel. 200% Flannel; firm, dependable fabric in pretty blue stripes and check patterns. Special Mill End price, 23c yd.

Flannel—Second Floor.

30TH MILL END SALE

Toilet
specials

toile Powder, 3½ size, special at..... 69c

Palmolive Soap, special, bar..... 7½c

Milk of Cholesterol, 4½c size, special at..... 29c

Woodbury's Soap, Regular 25c cake, special at..... 16c

Hudson's 3 Flowers Face Powder, 50c size, special at..... 44c

Imported Bay Rum, 50c size, special at..... 69c

Jap Bristle Tooth Brushes, 19c value, at..... 11c

Bee Talcum Powder, Regular 15c size, special at..... 6c

Mirrone, the famous French Rouge, 60c size..... 38c

Marvelous Cold Cream, 50c size, special..... 44c

Mary Garden Face Powder, 31.45 size, at..... 39c

Jorjenta Talcum, Wrtlay's finest powder, 50c size, special at..... 21c

Palm Olive Talcum, 50c size, special at..... 16c

Sanitary Powder Puffs, 1½ value, special..... 7c

Drug Store—Main Floor.

30TH MILL END SALE

1.50 silk
hose
89c

Women's full fashioned silk in black and colors, reinforced heels and toes; $1.50 value at the Mill End price, pair.

Hose—Main Floor.

30TH MILL END SALE

1.39 cork
linoleum
98c yd

Genuine Cork Linoleum on burkap back, attractive patterns and colorings, regular $1.39 value. Extra special Mill End Sale 98c square yard.

Linoleum—Fourth Floor.

30TH MILL END SALE

Men's 25c
hose
12½c

Men's fast black Cotton Knit reinforced heels and toes. Good for summer wear, also for city. Mill End price, 12½c.

Hose—Main Floor.